mentally the interned men instead established a small community within the camp The knowledge and skills possessed by the diverse inhabitants were used to teach classes and other activities such as sports drama and music lessons helped stave off boredom In the midst of all these activities the internees also endeavoured to defy their captors with various plans for escape The story of the Ballykinlar internment camp is on the one hand an account of suffering espionage murder and maltreatment but it is also a chronicle of survival comradeship and community Herdbook Containing the Pedigree of Improved Short-horn Cattle ,1921 Vols include the Shorthorn Society s Grading register for beef Shorthorn cattle v include the society s Herd book of poll shorthorns The V.
