Imagination of Neil Jordan, Irish Novelist and Film Maker Marguerite Pernot-Deschamps,2009 This work examines Neil Jordan s use of images taken from Irish history Catholicism the Irish land and the world of art and the senses in his films and heretofore unexamined novels Neil Jordan who is famous worldwide as a film maker started his career as a writer of short stories through which he seemed to follow a very Irish literary tradition As he became more and more attracted to the world of cinema he gave up writing short stories and has released over fifteen films since his first feature film Angel came out. He has however never relinquished writing and four novels have been published to date: The Past 1980, The Dream of a Beast 1983, Sunrise with Sea Monster 1994 and Shade 2004. All of his five works seem very different at first sight and yet they are united by both the particular use Jordan makes of images mostly related to his native country and his constant attempt at finding the right narrative voice to convey the complexity of individuals and their relationships with others. Moreover, Jordan has never settled for one particular form of narrative and has therefore been free to experiment with quite different narrative courses thus approaching the multifaceted reality of human nature from different angles every time and holding a multiplicity of mirrors to its inherent complexity.
