Gendering Knowledge in Africa and the African Diaspora addresses the question of to what extent the history of gender in Africa is appropriately inscribed in narratives of power patriarchy migration identity and women and men s subjection emasculation and empowerment The book weaves together compelling narratives about women men and gender relations in Africa and the African Diaspora from multidisciplinary perspectives with a view to advancing original ways of understanding these subjects The chapters achieve three things first they deliberately target long held but erroneous notions about patriarchy power gender migration and masculinity in Africa and of the African Diaspora vigorously contesting these and debunking them second they unearth previously marginalized and little known his herstories depicting the dynamics of gender and power in places ranging from Angola to Arabia to America and in different time periods decidedly gendering the previously male dominated discourse and third they ultimately aim to re write the stories of women and gender relations in Africa and in the African Diaspora As such this work is an important read for scholars of African history gender and the African Diaspora This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies Diaspora Studies Gender and History

Ballou's Dollar Monthly Magazine, 1875 Proceedings National Conference on Social Welfare, 1912 Nigerian Female Dramatists Bosede Funke Afolayan, 2021-03-17 This book showcases the important but often understudied work of Nigerian women playwrights As in many spheres of life in Nigeria in literature and other creative arts the voices of men dominate and the work of women has often been sidelined However Nigerian women playwrights have made important contributions to the development of drama in Nigeria not just by presenting female identities and inequalities but by vigorously intervening in wider social and political issues This book draws on perspectives from culture language politics theory orality and literature to shine a light on the engaged creativity of women playwrights From the trail blazing but more traditional contributions of Zulu Sofola through to contemporary postcolonial work by Tess Osonye Onwueme Julie Okoh and Sefi Atta to name just a few the book shows the rich variety of work being produced by female Nigerian dramatists This the first major collection devoted to Nigerian women playwrights will be an important resource for scholars of African theatre and performance literature and women s studies
