Mormon Wives Metta Victoria Fuller Victor, 1856      Mormon Wives Metta Victoria Fuller Victor, 1971      The Sisterhood: Inside the Lives of Mormon Women Dorothy Allred Solomon, 2007-10-02 A revealing look at Mormon women's relationships and experiences      The Mormon Wife Maria Ward, 1872      Mormon Wives; a Narrative of Facts Stranger Than Fiction Metta Victoria (Fuller) Victor, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1856 edition. Excerpt: As Harry walked along the street taking the middle of it and grasping a revolver in his hand to defend himself from the danger which lurked every where and reflected that a year had passed in this unprofitable way unprofitable to the spirit not to the purse his first home sickness attacked him. He could not keep that away with fire arms as he did pickpockets and it took a very firm hold of him. He reproached himself for not going back to cheer his parents left so afflicted and alone. All the care of the farm was upon his father who was growing feeble and his mother must feel very melancholy sitting by her little stand knitting away in solitude with the piano never open and neither of her older children about to amuse or assist her. As this picture came up vividly to his fancy the tears rushed into his eyes and he felt that his heart was not hardened that it had come out of the ordeal the same hopeful generous and affectionate heart as before sadder calmer not quite so confiding but not ruined by any means. He longed for quiet as earnestly as he had hitherto for the opposite. The city with its strangely mingled crowds its complicated business its lawless habits grew disgusting to him. He wished for peace and the sight of lovely refined women. Suddenly he remembered that it was the time for the post office to be opened. There had a mail arrived and the distribution was to take place at about five o'clock. There might be a letter from home or from Margaret. Dear Margaret he had not heard from her in months not directly from her since he came away. Tender memories of their childhood thronged about him. She seemed to him too to be in some kind of trouble to need him to call him and he.      A Mormon Wife Grace Wilbur Trout, 1912      Wife No. 19 Ann Eliza Young, 1875      Mormon Wives Metta Victoria Fuller Victor, 2014-01-08 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923.
