Work of Christmas Pamela E. Klassen, Monique Scheer, 2019-06-15 Christmas is not a holiday just for Christians anymore if it ever was Embedded in calendars around the world and long a lucrative merchandising opportunity Christmas enters multicultural multi religious public spaces provoking both festivity and controversy hospitality and hostility The Public Work of Christmas provides a comparative historical and ethnographic perspective on the politics of Christmas in multicultural contexts ranging from a Jewish museum in Berlin to a shopping boulevard in Singapore A seasonal celebration that is at once inclusive and assimilatory Christmas offers a clarifying lens for considering the historical and ongoing intersections of multiculturalism Christianity and the nationalizing and racializing of religion The essays gathered here examine how cathedrals banquets and carols serve as infrastructures of memory that hold up Christmas as a civic yet unavoidably Christian holiday At the same time the authors show how the public work of Christmas depends on cultural forms that mark and resist the ongoing power of Christianity in the lives of Christians and non Christians alike Legislated into paid
