Abolish Social Work (As We Know It) Craig Fortier,Edward Hon-Sing Wong,MJ Rwigema,2024-06-12 Abolish Social Work As We Know It responds to the timely and important call for police abolition by analyzing professional social work as one alternative commonly proposed as a ready-made solution to ending police brutality. Drawing on both historical analysis and lessons learned from decades of organizing abolitionist and decolonizing practices within the field and practice of social work, including social service, community organizing, and other helping fields, this book is an important contribution in the discussion of what abolitionist social work could look like. This edited volume brings together predominantly BIPOC and queer trans social work survivors, community-based activists, educators, and frontline social workers to propose both an abolitionist framework for social work practice and a transformative framework that calls for the dissolution and restructuring of social work as a profession. Rejecting the practices and values encapsulated by professional social work as embedded in carceral and colonial systems, Abolish Social Work As We Know It moves us towards a social work framework guided by principles of mutual aid, accountability, and relationality led by Indigenous, Black, queer, trans, racialized, immigrant, disabled, poor, and other communities for whom social work has inserted itself into their lives.
