Masterpieces of Persian Painting Mohammad Ali Rajabi, 2005

موسسه فرهنگی هنری ایران محمد علی راجبی, 2005

The artworks currently showcased have been collected jointly by Tehran Museum of Contemporary Arts TMCA and Iran's Cultural Heritage and Tourism Organization ICHTO. The collection on show includes not only some of the golden pages of the recorded national history of art but manifests the artistic achievements of the outstanding Iranian masters of art who have succeeded in depicting the mystery of Divine creation on canvas by means of their intellectual scientific and practical faculties. Thus the timeless heritage of their experience has been recorded in the history of mankind forever. Ferdowsi's Book of Kings, Shahnameh, Nezami's Khamseh, a collection of five books in verse, Sa'di's Golestan and Bostan, Hafiz's Poetry Collection, and even the sensational exquisite stories of One Thousand and One Nights interconnect various eras of the history and express the mystery of man's unity in terms of Islamic wisdom and the language of art. A collection of these masterpieces and dozens of pieces of Persian Paintings dating back to Timurid and Safavid eras, a collection that manifests exalted concepts and mysteries of the realities about mankind, is now being showcased at TMCA after a long period of oblivion. The display of the valuable artworks of prominent masters of art from the Iranian and Indian painting schools in a single exhibition undoubtedly marks a turning point and will pave the way for the future developments of Iran's visual arts. The precious pieces of Persian Paintings currently on show include a selection of the masterpieces produced by Kamaleddin Behzad, Amin, Khalil, Qavameddin, Khajeh, Ghiaseddin, Mir Azod, Qasem, Ali, Mozaffar, Ali, Mirza, Ali, Mahmoud, Mozzaheb, Heidar, Ali, Maqsoud, Farhad, Sultan, Mohammad, Aqa, Mirak, Mir, Seyed, Ali, Abdul, Samad, Mir, Mosavvar, Abdul, Aziz, Qadimi, Reza, Abbasi, and Aqa, Reza. The artworks safeguarded at the archives of libraries over the past centuries are now on exhibit at TMCA and have drawn the attention of the world's lovers of spiritual art. Given the high interest of the world's researchers in the artworks on display, many applications have been received from foreign museums for hosting similar expositions in the future. What can be learned from the timeless and unbound in space Persian Paintings is the way to express abstract and exalted concepts in terms of the familiar pictorial elements. Refined forms and colors, the elixir of texture and magic combination of basic elements seen from the front instead of in perspective, create a single flat image of the great heritage of the Persian Painting. The atrocity of raging wars, the fainting of Leili the beloved and Majnoun the lover, and their collapse on the sandy desert, on coming face to face, the enchanted Gnostics breaking into dance, and the Prophet Mohammad's PBUH ascension to the celestial sphere while floating in light, all reflect the reality and image of the pure heart of the artists who viewed the world, its Creator, and creatures with love. Therefore, association with these artists and inspection of their art will reveal to the world the real face of this art of the present age and will unveil the true concept of contemporary art.
