The Masters of Modern Art Walter Pach,1924 Mary Cassatt between Paris and New York Ruth E.

Iskin,2025-01-28 The first comprehensive study of Cassatt's life work and legacy through the prism of a transatlantic framework This book reenvisioned Mary Cassatt in the context of her transatlantic network friendships exhibitions politics and legacy Rather than defining her as either an American artist or a French impressionist author Ruth E Iskin argues that we can best understand Cassatt through the complexity of her multiple identifications as an American patriot a committed French impressionist and a suffragist Contextualizing Cassatt's feminist outlook within the intense pro and anti suffrage debates in the United States Iskin shows how these impacted her artistic representations of motherhood fatherhood and older women Mary Cassatt between Paris and New York also argues for the historical importance of her work as an advisor to American collectors and demonstrates the role of museums in shaping her legacy highlighting the combined impact of gender national and transnational dynamics paintings worthy of merit and what makes a masterpiece a masterpiece The Impressionists Francesco Salvi, 2008 This book describes the development of Impressionism and presents the eleven artists who made up the Impressionist group including reproductions and analyses of their work The Smith College Museum of Art Smith College. Museum of Art, John Davis, Jaroslaw Leshko, 2000 Smith College art professors Davis and Leshko showcase 100 paintings and sculptures from their institution's vaunted collection encompassing Americans from Gilbert Stuart to Louise Nevelson and Europeans from Corot to Henry Moore. In the introduction how and why Smith became steward of such a fine body of work is ascribed to the school's high minded mission and its generous alumni donors. The rest of the book is divided into two sections one American and the other European. Each individual full color reproduction is accompanied by an informative one page essay and a brief reading list. During several years of renovations at Smith the items featured in this book are traveling to diverse sites which should increase the book's appeal. 118 colour 1 b w illustrations
