Migration and Media Lorella Viola, Andreas Musolff, 2019-03-07 The socio discursive landscape surrounding the migration debate is characterised by a growing sense of crisis in both personal and collective identities. From this viewpoint discourses about immigration are also always attempts at reconstructing the threatened home identity of the respective host society. It is such attempts at reasserting identity in crisis due to migration that are the focus of the volume Migration and Media. Discourses about identities in crisis. This four part book explores the representational strategies used to frame current migration debates as crises of identity collective and individual. It features fourteen case studies of varying sets of data including print media texts, TV broadcasts, online forums, politicians' speeches, legal and administrative texts and oral narratives drawn from discourses in a range of languages: Croatian, English, French, German, Greek, Italian, Lithuanian, Polish, Russian, Serbian, Slovenian, Spanish and Ukrainian, and it employs different discourse analytical methods such as Argumentation and Metaphor Analysis, Gendered Language Studies, Corpus assisted Semantics and Pragmatics and Proximization Theory. Such a diverse range of sources, languages and approaches provides innovative methodological and theoretical analysis on migration and identity which will be of interest to scholars, students and policy makers working in the fields of migration studies, media studies, identity studies and social and public policy. As of January 2023 this e-book is freely available thanks to the support of libraries working with Knowledge Unlatched.

Migrant Media Kira Kosnick, 2007-12-12 This study of media and migrant communities in Germany's capital city is a model of clarity and rigor in its arguments. Martin Stokes (University of Chicago) In this innovative and thought provoking study Kira Kosnick explores the landscape of Turkish language broadcasting in Berlin. From twenty four hour radio broadcasting in Turkish to programming on Germany's national public broadcasting and local public access channels, Germany's largest immigrant minority has made its presence felt in German media. Satellite dishes have appeared in migrant neighborhoods all over the city giving viewers access to Kurdish channels and broadcasts from Turkey. Kosnick draws on interviews with producers, her own participation in production work and analysis of programs to elaborate a new approach to migrant media in relation to the larger cultural and political spaces through which immigrant life is imagined and created.
