Multilateralism In Multinational Perspective Viewpoints From Different Languages And Literatures:

Multilateralism in Multinational Perspective James Patrick Sewell, 2000 This book examines writings on multilateralism Drawing comparisons across cultures it demonstrates how far flung observers enrich understanding by regarding multilateralism from vantage points unlike those which underlie the dominant American literature Authors illustrate how political economic and other conditions influence the concerns animating works under scrutiny thereby elucidating the uses of theorizing

Globalization, Democratization and Multilateralism Stephen Gill, 2016-07-27 Globalization involves structural changes in forms of state society and culture ecology and political economy and in ethics and expectations In this collection globalization and multilateralism are linked to questions of epistemology ontology and strategy Epistemology entails critical questioning of the nature of knowledge and its foundations Ontology concerns the significant factors in global political economy Strategy involves how to move world affairs from its present condition towards normative goals enunciated in the MUNS programme so as to promote collective ability to channel structural change in a more democratic direction

Future Multilateralism Michael G. Schechter, 2016-07-27 The aim of this volume is to discuss the kinds of multilateralism that would be required to pursue some of the alternative projects of society namely those which agree with some of the key normative commitments of the MUNS programme non violent means for dealing with conflict social equity protection of the biosphere diffusion of power among social groups and societies The strategies identified here are both top down ie relying on conventional international institutions and bottom up ie involving a new multilateralism grounded in civil society

Global Governance Steve Hughes, Rorden Wilkinson, 2003-09-02 In recent years the role of global institutions such as the United Nations World Trade Organization International Monetary Fund and the World Bank has never been more important to the lives of individuals throughout the world This edited book provides critical perspectives on the role of these institutions and how they use their policies procedures and practices to manage global political socio economic legal and environmental affairs In contrast to previously published books on this subject Global Governance is organized thematically rather than by institution Each chapter examines core issues such as labour finance the environment health culture gender civil society poverty and development It should be essential reading for undergraduate students of international politics international political economy and international economics

The New Realism Robert W. Cox, 2016-07-27 The new realism differs from Cold War neorealism by including a broad range of non state forces peoples and social movements that challenge the exclusive dominance of states and the global economy in the making of future world order The resurgence of civilisations brings a variety of perspectives to interpreting the present and imagining the future Medium term factors influence this mix of forces the uncertainties of US policy the fragmentation of the former Soviet Union global social polarisation and a new form of people based regionalism

Rethinking Japanese Security Peter J. Katzenstein, 2008-03-11 This collection brings together Peter J Katzenstein s selected essays on the regional and domestic dimensions of Japan's security policy Using a theoretical and comparative perspective it covers recent developments in Japanese security      South Africa's Multilateral Diplomacy and Global Change Philip Nel, Ian Taylor, Janis Van der Westhuizen, 2001 Post apartheid South Africa's foreign policy has accepted a range of leadership responsibilities within multilateral institutions This text assesses how in these various leadership capacities South Africa has been able to punch above its weight diplomatically Pretoria's intervention or support for a particular position has sometimes been crucial in breaking a deadlock or securing the co-operation of others South Africa has also used its profile to act as a voice for the vulnerable smaller states in world affairs Based on their assessment of globalization as a process that holds some benefits but also many dangers for developing countries both the Mandela and Mbeki presidencies have used multilateral forums to push for a greater say by developing countries in global governance This position seems to indicate a reformist tendency in South African foreign policy This book examines whether Pretoria's multilateral diplomacy contributes to global transformation or whether South Africa's policies help maintain a fundamentally flawed global order      International Affairs, 2001

Twentieth Century International Relations: Whatever happened to the Pacific century? Michael Cox, 2006

The United Nations in the Twenty-First Century Marcus Franda, 2006-06-02 The United Nations in the Twenty First Century analyzes the significance of the many forces and events affecting the UN's efforts at reform It provides a detailed examination of these processes for all of the major UN organs and agencies including chapters on the Secretaries

Kulma, 2005      Transnational Perspectives, 1982

Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers      Global Transformation Yoshikazu Sakamoto, 1994 Underlying the process of the ending of the Cold War are the forces of internationalization represented by the market and forces of democratization rooted in civil society Each of these two dynamics has developed unevenly in modern history giving rise to contradictions particularly between capitalist internationalization and political democratization The challenges to the state system the basic framework of the modern international order posed by the dialectic of these two dynamics form the main themes in this examination of global transformation This collaborative effort of 20 scholars from around the world represents the first truly comprehensive critical reflection on the contemporary global transformation
