Multiparty Politics In America Prospects And Performance:

Multiparty Politics in America Paul S. Herrnson, John Clifford Green, 2002 In the wake of Election 2000 and the Ralph Nader factor this collection of original essays by leading political scientists examines the possibilities for and performance of minor parties in the American political system Looking at the rise and fall of the Reform Party and the seeming upsurge in Green Party prospects the authors present evidence and opinion about the viability of a multiparty system in the United States New York party politics and Congressional and state legislative elections add depth to our understanding of multiparty politics in action A unique public opinion survey shows surprising variation in citizen s attitudes toward minor parties and multiparty politics nationwide Will minor parties flourish or flounder in the 2004 election season This volume offers a variety of views that every voter should consider Visit our website for sample chapters Empowering Progressive Third Parties in the United States Jonathan H. Martin, 2015-11-19 This ground breaking collection of writings explores how progressive third parties in the U S can become more electorally successful and politically influential It is the only recently published book that focuses exclusively on how such parties may advance Their rise may be essential to countering the powerful growing sway of wealth within the two major American parties and to creating a more just democratic United States Contributors include key participants in and observers of the U S left third party movement Nearly all have previously authored books or articles on progressive politics Many have led effective left third party efforts and some have held elected office on behalf of a progressive third party Together the writers reflect on a wide range of relevant parties including the Green Party the Vermont Progressive Party the Labor Party the Working Families Party Socialist Alternative and potential new parties on the American left The authors highlight a variety of strategies and conditions that may facilitate electoral breakthroughs by such parties and their candidates Overall the collection suggests that U S progressive third parties may make more headway if they thoughtfully combine their idealism and sense of urgency with a flexible pragmatic approach to gaining power

Political Encyclopedia of U.S. States and Regions Donald P. Haider-Markel, 2008-11-03 An essential reference to and expert analysis of government and politics in all 50 states and the US territories This innovative and useful reference fills the need for practical information and conceptual analysis of the roles and functions of state government by providing accessible state by state and regional overviews of government and politics Features include substantive essays in depth profiles of each of the fifty states the District of Columbia and all U S territories an encyclopedic A to Z section with entries covering the overarching concepts structures and processes that are important to state and local government and politics in general and a detailed section on data and statistics emphasizing historical and demographic trends that have helped shape regional and state government and politics

Voting and Political Representation in America Mark P. Jones, 2020-02-24 Examines voting trends and political representation in the United States today with a special focus on debates over voting rights voter fraud and voter suppression and election rules and regulations including those related to gerrymandering campaign fundraising and other controversial subjects Do average Americans have a voice in Washington Are they well represented or are they marginalized Do elections reflect fundamental democratic institutions and values or are they tarnished by voter suppression voter fraud gerrymandering or other factors To what extent do America s elected officials reflect the diversity of race religion gender socioeconomic background sexual orientation and political views of the wider American population This encyclopedia explores all these questions and more It examines important mechanisms and laws shaping political representation in America in the 21st century such as term limits gerrymandering the Electoral College and direct democracy ballot initiatives and referendums and the degree to which various demographic groups are represented in state and federal legislatures from Latinos and senior citizens to atheists and residents of rural states It also explains the basis for escalating concerns about both voter fraud and voter suppression

Democracy in the States Bruce E. Cain, Todd Donovan, Caroline J. Tolbert, 2011-06-01 Democracy in the States offers a 21st century agenda for election reform in America based on lessons learned in the fifty states Combining accessibility and rigor leading scholars of U S politics and elections examine the impact of reforms intended to increase the integrity fairness and responsiveness of the electoral system While some of these reforms focus on election administration which has been the subject of much controversy since the 2000 presidential election others seek more broadly to increase political participation and improve representation For example Paul Gronke Reed College and his colleagues study the relationship between early voting and turnout Barry Burden University of Wisconsin Madison examines the hurdles that third party candidates must clear to get on the ballot in different states Michael McDonald George Mason University analyzes the leading strategies for redistricting reform And Todd Donovan Western Washington University focuses on how the spread of safe legislative seats affects both representation and participation Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis famously observed that a single courageous state may if its citizens choose serve as a laboratory and try novel social and economic experiments without risk to the rest of the country Nowhere is this function more essential than in the sphere of election reform as this important book shows
