Eleanor Boylan, 2014-04-01 It s been a long time since Clara Gamadge s school days but forever young at heart she still has close ties to the old gang and her alma mater Wolcott Academy Springtime on campus is usually a time of winding down and wrapping up until suddenly murder and suspense are the only subjects on anyone s mind Usually when Clara receives a note from Louise Littleton Wolcott s youthful and sprightly headmistress it s just to keep in touch but this time it concerns mysterious circumstances Margo Llewelyn formerly an Academy charity student now a movie star of former and fading glory has arrived at Wolcott s doorsteps in desperate straits In a panic she begs Louise to accept her three little girls as boarding students so she can immediately get out of the country Louise has encountered parents anxious to part with their children before but this seemed especially odd When a dead body breaks up commencement ceremonies it s time for Clara Gamadge to put the pieces together What misfortune had caused Margo s shining star to sink so low Would more blood tarnish Wolcott s ivy covered walls Only a super
