Mackenzie]. James Mackenzie, 1874

Sledgehammer and Other Poems John MacKenzie, 2000 This is the work of the hammer to break us open writes John MacKenzie in this eloquent debut His poems draw upon his Maritime roots the earthy talk and wry humour the daily grind of physical labour the tug of family ties Whether he's writing about harvesting canola in Manitoba walking a steel girder high above Toronto or birthing calves on PEI his poems are equal parts rage exact observation wit and hard earned love

Beneath Borrowed Skies MacKenzie Fitzgerald, 2025-09 Beneath Borrowed Skies is a searingly honest collection of poems exploring the fragile threads that bind us to family love memory and ourselves With a voice both vulnerable and unflinching this collection dives headfirst into the grief of absence the ache of growing up too fast and the bright hope that persists through it all These pages are stitched with resilience wonder and a little bit of magic and bound with the quiet strength of someone who holds it all together even when everything threatens to fall apart For anyone who has ever stood in the wreckage of what once was and asked Will I be okay this collection answers not with certainty but with companionship and a gentle nudge to find joy even in the messiness of life The sorrows of seduction, in eight delineations, with other poems [by W. Mackenzie]. William Mackenzie, 1810

Sonnets for the Queen of Heaven Joseph Charles MacKenzie, 2021-05-31 SONNETS FOR THE QUEEN OF HEAVEN Sonnets for the Queen of Heaven the sequel of the critically acclaimed Sonnets for Christ the King is a mystical exploration of the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the supernatural economy of grace Consisting of three related sequences of traditional English sonnets composed in the grand manner the collection contains marvels of beauty and poetic form marking a definitive return to the elegance and refinement of classic verse As Fr Marcellus Moylan states Using with deft skill the art of lyrical poetry and with great faith and orthodoxy of doctrine MacKenzie delves into the profoundest mysteries concerning the greatest Woman God ever made The student of traditional poetry will here learn much in regard to style and the use of language while the religious soul will savor profound and lofty truths to whet his appetite for contemplation      The Poems of Kenneth Mackenzie Kenneth Mackenzie,1972

Currents and Tides Mackenzie Li Fertig,2021-09-28 As I write these poems and the stories of others that desperately need to be told I find strength and desire to give others a voice that do not have one those that have not found it yet I write so that you may find hope and access a power in yourself that you didn't know was there No matter the season of life I encourage you to find grace for yourself and confidence in your search for strength within to create something positive with what you have been given Value yourself with your imperfections because you have a place and have much to offer with the gifts you have It is okay to rest to not feel okay and be right where they are at in the moment it is okay to be human The following is a compilation of poems titled Currents and Tides The chapters being Reef Low Tide Rip Tide and High Tide represent landmarks in our life the highs struggles and pains Each poem in its designated chapter provides insight via stories on how to navigate the waves of that particular season in one's life What is your wave How do you face it head on      Bento Box Mackenzie Moore,2020-09-14 Mackenzie's poems grip you viscerally presenting a view that is rooted in thoughtfulness wit and intelligence her words embrace you with strength and understanding Samah Dada Tender poignant and true I finished these wanting to hug every poem and the person attached Mackenzie effortlessly captures the universal need to self preserve and the little things we do and don't do to keep ourselves together Taylor Cox Mackenzie's ability to render her voice her real inner narration draws the reader in with each piece She lays the openings of a conversation before us and invites us to share a coffee a rice beer or a good cry Each poem deserves a reread and dares us to respond Ashley Alcorn

time is the complete set up to September 2017 of my songs and poems Many are taken from my first book The Adventures of Old Pa and his Street Fire Songs and Poetry Plus there are many many more At least 80 or more new songs and poems released here for the first time I was born in Inverness in 1949 and have lived in East Kilbride London near Heathrow and Saudi Arabia for 10 years I am now retired and have lived in Spain for the past 7 years I love music especially Dylan and Van but really love it all and still get a thrill when I hear something new today Since I retired I started to write poems and songs and became quite prolific Many are about the dark side of love But there is also lighter stuff as well I suppose I have been influenced by all the rock poets Dylan Cohen Springsteen Curtis Staples etc but with a hint of Rabbie and I would like to think a little Wordsworth I would classify my poem songs as street fire poetry That should just about cover it     The Academy ,1909     The Mackenzie Poems [by] William Lyon Mackenzie & John Robert Colombo John Robert Colombo,William Lyon Mackenzie,1966
