Made In Yugoslavia:

Made in Yugoslavia Vladimir Jekanović, 2001 A shocking and moving story of ordinary young men whose lives are overturned by a conflict that is all too recent Luka Greg and Bili grew up together in the small town of Osijek in the former Yugoslavia getting drunk together playing in a mediocre band fighting and flirting with their girlfriends Now it is 1991 Bili has just returned from national service and it looks like the young men can get back to their crates of beer but as the creaking sounds of tanks reach earshot and neighbours hurry down to their basements in their pyjamas it is clear that the town is changing irrevocably Luka defiantly tries to carry on as normal as his Croatian girlfriend Maria rails at his indifference But soon the young men must take sides and slowly each one is drawn back to a heritage that never used to matter much to them He finds himself on the Serb side on a smallholding filled with looted televisions and a variety of crazy soldiers Luka watches in resigned despair as tragedy approaches In stark and vivid prose Jekanovic has created a hugely important work of fiction that exposes the emotions of people reluctantly fighting a very real war The World and Yugoslavia's Wars Richard Henry Ullman, 1996 What can outside powers do now to help heal the terrible wounds caused by Yugoslavia's wars Why did the victors in the Cold War and the 1991 Gulf War not act to stop the slaughter The nature scope and meaning of the actions and inactions of outsiders is the subject of this book Federal Register, 1964-04 Italy Luigi Villari, 1929 Minutes of the ... Session Held at Geneva ... League of Nations. Advisory Committee on Traffic in Opium and Other Dangerous Drugs. Session, 1929 Made in Yugoslavia Predrag Sekulić, 2008 Foreign Trade of the United States in the Fiscal Year 1921/22-1931 United States. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, 1923

Reconstructing the Cold War Ted Hopf, 2012-04-12 General answers are hard to imagine for the many puzzling questions that are raised by Soviet relations with the world in the early years of the Cold War Why was Moscow more frightened by the Marshall Plan than the Truman Doctrine Why would the Soviet Union abandon its closest socialist ally Yugoslavia just when the Cold War was getting under way How could Khrushchev's de-Stalinized domestic and foreign policies at first cause a warming of relations with China and then lead to the loss of its most important strategic ally What can explain Stalin's failure to ally with the leaders of the decolonizing world against imperialism and Khrushchev's enthusiastic embrace of these leaders as anti-imperialist at a time of the first detente of the Cold War It would seem that only idiosyncratic explanations could be offered for these seemingly incoherent policy outcomes Or at best they could be explained by the personalities of Stalin and Khrushchev as leaders The latter although plausible is incorrect In fact the most Stalinist of Soviet leaders the secret police chief and sociopath Lavrentii Beria was the most enthusiastic proponent of de-Stalinized foreign and domestic policies after Stalin's death in March 1953 Ted Hopf argues instead that it was Soviet identity that explains these anomalies During Stalin's rule a discourse of danger prevailed in Soviet society where any deviations from the idealized version of the New Soviet Man were understood as threatening the very survival of the Soviet project itself But the discourse of danger did not go unchallenged Even under the rule of Stalin Soviet society understood a socialist Soviet Union as a more secure diverse and socially democratic place This discourse of difference with its broader conception of what the socialist project meant and who could contribute to it was empowered after Stalin s death first by Beria then by Malenkov and then by Khrushchev and the rest of the post Stalin Soviet leadership This discourse of difference allowed for the de Stalinization of Eastern Europe with the consequent revolts in Poland and Hungary a rapprochement with Tito s Yugoslavia and an initial warming of relations with China But it also sowed the seeds of the split with China as the latter moved in the very Stalinist direction at home just rejected by Moscow And contrary to conventional and scholarly wisdom a moderation of authoritarianism at home a product of the discourse of difference did not lead to a moderation of Soviet foreign policy abroad Instead it led to the opening of an entirely new and bloody front in the decolonizing world In sum this book argues for paying attention to how societies understand themselves even in the most repressive of regimes Who knows their ideas about national identity might come to power sometime as was the case in Iran in 1979 and throughout the Arab world today
