Westworld Juli Gittinger,Shayna Sheinfeld,2020-07-15 In the first two seasons of the HBO series Westworld human guests pay exorbitant fees to spend time among cybernetic Hosts partially sentient AI robots and live out often violent fantasies In Theology and Westworld scholars from a range of disciplines within religious studies examine the profound questions that arise when the narrative of Westworld interacts with the study of religion From transhumanism and personhood to morality and divinity this book contributes to confounds and challenges ideas that are found in the study of religion and philosophy Taken together the chapters further our understanding of what it means to live in a world where the hard questions of human existence are explored through the medium of popular culture

Representing the New AI in Film and Television Graham Allen,2025-05-29 The 21st century has witnessed rapid advances in artificial intelligence giving rise to a society at once hopeful but also mistrustful of the possibilities that this technology offers Our hopes and anxieties have played out across a variety of media in recent times but arguably nowhere more significantly than on our screens This book explores a phenomenon which it calls the new AI cinema and television arguing that since the mid 2010s a distinctly new phase in the representation of AI has occurred Discussing films such as Blade Runner 2049 Ex Machina and Ghost in the Shell alongside television series such as Westworld and Humans it argues that they have moved away from apocalyptic scenarios towards questions of personhood consciousness and social inclusion and exclusion In doing so it intervenes in some of today's most pressing debates including gender representation AI ethics climate catastrophe and the rights of artificially intelligent beings
