With her potions shop officially open for business Holly sets off to the San Francisco Haven to compete with the most elite potions masters in the entire country. But what should be a fun and potentially life changing experience quickly sours when Haven Council officials show up and start poking around Holly's workstation. When one of the competitors is found murdered all eyes swivel to Holly and her apprentice Holly doesn't know who killed the egotistical wizard but she knows it wasn't her or Harmony. She also knows that there are some on the esteemed Haven Council who wouldn't hesitate to blur the lines of the investigation if it means getting rid of her once and for all. Holly Adam Evangeline and Harmony have to find the real killer before the clock runs out and Holly ends up wearing SPA handcuffs. But when the clover shaped clues lead back to the crime scene things take a deadly turn. With a rogue leprechaun on the loose and something sinister lurking on the edges of town it's up to Holly to stop the murderer and keep secret paranormal powers from swallowing up the sleepy town she's grown to love. This is said to be an age of Materialism and modern science boasts to have exploded old superstitious beliefs Yet it is curious how constantly old traditions and fancies crop up amid the most prosaic surroundings of modern existence There are certainly many people at the present day whose belief in invisible agencies is untouched by all the learning of the ages We call our superstitions by different names but we cling to them still Matters that admit of no explanation must always puzzle and make anxious A strange fascination hangs about those subjects upon which no consistent theory has ever been formed subjects the nerves and fibres of which have never yet been laid bare by the forceps and the scalpels of microscopic science It is to a survey of some such subjects that the subsequent chapters of this little work will be devoted In this aim this book covers various aspects of the history of magic superstition mythological creatures and ranges from astrology and alchemy to ghost and religions Magic, Mystery and the Multiverse Aurora Winter,2024-09-05
