Women Film Directors Gwendolyn A.

Foster, 1995-11-14 Until now there hasn't been one single volume authoritative reference work on the history of women in film highlighting nearly every woman filmmaker from the dawn of cinema including Alice Guy France 1896 Chantal Akerman Belgium Penny Marshall U.S. and Sally Potter U.K. Every effort has been made to include every kind of woman filmmaker commercial and mainstream avant garde and minority and to give a complete cross section of the work of these remarkable women. Scholars and students of film popular culture Women's Studies and International Studies as well as film buffs will learn much from this work. The Dictionary covers the careers of nearly 200 women filmmakers giving vital statistics where available listings of films directed by these women and selected bibliographies for further reading. This is a one volume one stop resource a comprehensive up to date guide that is absolutely essential for any course offering an overview or survey of women's cinema. It offers not only all available statistics but critical evaluations of the filmmakers work as well. In order to keep the length manageable this volume focuses on women who direct fictional narrative films with occasional forays into the area of the documentary and is limited to film production rather than video production

Sold by the Millions Louise

Lightfoot, Amit Sarwal, 2011-12-08 Australian genre fiction writers have successfully exploited the Australian landscape and peoples and as a result their books are today sold by the millions across boundaries. They have created stories that are imaginative visionary and diverse. They appeal to local and international readerships and most importantly are thoroughly entertaining thus making them a strong presence in the popular fiction bazaar. Sold by the Millions Australia's Bestsellers is the first collection to concentrate on Australia's best selling material that forms the armchair reading of many Australians. Leading experts of popular fiction provide introspective pieces on Romance Horror Crime Science Fiction Western Comics
