Culture, 1992      New Neighbours Matthew Cooper, 1992      Courtyard Housing for Health and Happiness Donia Zhang, 2016-03-09 Health and happiness are fundamental to human quality of life The United Nations World Happiness Report 2012 reflects a new worldwide call for governments to include happiness as a criterion to their policies The Healthy Cities or Happy Cities movement has been endorsed by the WHO since 1986 and a Healthy House or Happy Home is a critical constituent of a healthy city or a happy city Nevertheless the concept has not been fully explored Existing literature on the healthy house has often focused on the technical economic environmental or biochemical aspects while current scholarship on the happy home commonly centers on interior decoration Few studies have addressed the importance of social and cultural factors that affect the health and happiness of the occupants Identifying four key themes in Chinese philosophy to promote health and happiness at home this book links architecture with Chinese philosophy social sciences and the humanities and in doing so argues that Architectural Multiculturalism is a vital ideology to guide housing design in North America Using both qualitative and quantitative evidence gathered from ethnic Chinese and non Chinese living in the USA and Canada the study proposes that the Courtyard is a central component to promote social and cultural health and happiness of residents It further details courtyard garden house design strategies that combine a sense of privacy with a feeling of community as represented in courtyard housing The schemes may have universal implications      American Anthropology, 1971-1995 Regna Darnell, 2002-01-01 American anthropology in the late twentieth century interrogated and depicted the worlds of others past and present in subtle and incisive ways while increasingly questioning its own authority to do so Marxist symbolic and structuralist thought shaped the fieldwork and conclusions of many researchers around the globe Practicing anthropology blossomed and grew rapidly as a subdiscipline in its own right There emerged a keener appreciation of both the history of the discipline and the histories of those studied Archaeologists witnessed a resurgence of interest in the concept of culture The American Anthropologist also made systematic efforts to represent the field as a whole with biological anthropology and linguistics particularly adept at crossing subdiscipline boundaries Proliferation of specialized areas within sociocultural anthropology encouraged work across the subdisciplines The thirty selections in this volume reflect the notable trends and accomplishments in American anthropology during the closing decades of the millennium An introduction by Regna Darnell offers a historical background and critical context that enable readers to better understand the changes and continuity in American anthropology during this time      Economic Rights in Canada and the United States Rhoda E. Howard-Hassmann, Claude E. Welch, Jr., 2011-06-03 Readers in Western developed countries are most familiar with abuses of political and civil rights but the international human rights regime also embraces a set of laws regarding economic rights These rights include the right to work and to just and favorable working conditions the right to join and form trade unions the right to social security specific rights for the family the right to an adequate standard of living including food clothing housing and the continuous improvement of living conditions and the right to the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health In original essays by scholars senior and junior this volume explains how these rights are realized or violated in Canada and the United States Contributors analyze the philosophy law and politics of economic rights and discuss specific issues such as poverty health care and the rights of people with disabilities Central to the problems of both countries are the human rights abuses evident in all contemporary capitalist societies When the inequalities among citizens are not cushioned by a national commitment to economic rights or when governments fail to maintain social safety nets for all citizens economic rights are at risk Contributors consider the problem from the perspective of their own countries Canada the United States and for contrast the Netherlands They do so in order to explore whether their own countries fall short of meeting international standards of economic rights They also address the criticism often made by non Western scholars of human rights that their Western colleagues preach human rights abroad without regard to the human rights flaws at home New Neighbours Matthew Cooper,1992

The Cultural Meaning of Urban Space Gary McDonogh,Robert Rotenberg,1993-04-30 This book presents a cross cultural approach to the study of urban space Essays written by major contributors in contemporary urban studies provide a range of case studies from Asia Latin America North America and Europe to address important questions about space and power processes of change aesthetics and attitudes toward space and social divisions expressed through urban life The essays fall into three interlocking sections conceptual and linguistic approaches to urban space visual and social examinations of world cities and policy examinations of spatial analyses Together with the jointly compiled bibliography this collection of essays is designed to stimulate comparative debate and identify new areas for urban research Essays contrast empty space in Barcelona and Savannah explore the concept of healthy and unhealthy urban environments in the classical writings and in modern day Vienna and develop a model of space for Shanghai from the point of view of privacy The subcultural ethos characterizing Tokyo and the castle as a symbol for the community in Japan are two more essay topics The plaza in Spanish American towns the outdoor spaces in Italy balcony street courtyard and the school in Honduras are sites for socio cultural analyses in three more essays The last group of essays focus on discourses in urban planning especially the responses of people to the growth marketing and decay of residential places African American neighborhoods and waterfront development provide examples for this section These essays in their theoretical and geographical breadth make significant strides in defining the cultural meaning of urban space They will be read with interest by city planners ecologists and other social scientists involved in finding human solutions to the metropolitan environment Canadian Journal of Urban Research ,2000

Canadian Books in Print, 2003      Urban Lives Vered Amit-Talai, Henri Lustiger-Thaler, 1994      Toward the Integration of Theory, Methods, Research, and Utilization Gary T. Moore, Robert W. Marans, 2013-03-09 This fourth volume in the Advances in Environment Behavior and Design series continues the intent of earlier volumes by exploring new directions in the multidisciplinary environment behavior EB or EBS field The series is organized around a framework of theory methods research and utilization that some say has defined the field for the past 15 years This fourth volume is devoted to chapters that explore the integration of theory quantitative and qualitative research and utilization in policy planning and architecture The authors selected for this volume exemplify the multidisciplinary character of the field they have been selected from architecture environmental psychology environmental studies housing research landscape architecture social anthropology social ecology urban design and urban planning from academe and practice and from Australia Europe and North America

HISTORY OF THE ADVANCES SERIES The idea for the series emerged in 1983 at meetings of the Board of Directors of the Environmental Design Research Association EDRA Several publishers were contacted about the possibility of an EDRA Annual Review Eliot Werner at Plenum Press expressed great interest but suggested that an Advances series would be more appropriate since publication could be tied to a less specific timetable EDRA Plenum and the editors signed a contract in June 1984 for three volumes with an open door for oral agreements between Plenum and the editors after that time Four volumes have been published Volume 1 1987 Volume 2 1989 Volume 3 1991 and the current Volume 4 each containing 10 to 12 chapters

International Encyclopedia of the Social & Behavioral Sciences Neil J. Smelser, Paul B. Baltes, 2001 The largest work ever published in the social and behavioural sciences It contains 4000 signed articles 15 million words of text 90 000 bibliographic references and 150 biographical entries

Caught in the Eye of the Storm Jon Careless, 2024-10-05T00:00:00Z This book is a case study analysis of the public housing district of Lawrence Heights in North York Toronto a neighbourhood undergoing the largest revitalization in Canada The book presents a chronological narrative of change and upheaval in Lawrence Heights beginning with its origins after World War Two as a modernist style city on a hill that was intended to help remedy Toronto's affordable housing shortage and simultaneously transform its systemically disadvantaged tenant base into idealized members of the middle class As the community became progressively more racialized and oppressed in the late twentieth century the reputation of Lawrence Heights and its occupants became steadily more denigrated by the forces of stigmatization governmental neglect and police brutality In this milieu local political officials and private developer partners have striven to tear Lawrence Heights down and rebuild it into a socially mixed neighbourhood This plan threatens the existing social fabric of a proud and politically active community

New Neighbours A Case Study Of Cooperative Housing In Toronto: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. New Neighbours A Case Study Of Cooperative Housing In Toronto : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
