New Oxford Of Canadian Short Stories In English:

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre. It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others. Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story. This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century. A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it. The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature. For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story. Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

The New Oxford Book of Canadian Short Stories in English Margaret Atwood, Robert Weaver, 1995 A survey of Canada's leading writers features forty seven stories with new pieces by writers in the original Oxford Book of Canadian Short Stories. Included are short stories by W P Kinsella Morley Callaghan Timothy Findlay Matt Cohen Alice Munro and Margaret Atwood

Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies Joseph Jones, 2005-01-01 Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies offers the first full scale bibliography of writing on and in the field of Canadian literary studies. Approximately one thousand annotated entries are arranged by reference genre with sub groupings related to literary genre

Margaret Atwood Shannon Hengen, Ashley Thomson, 2007-05-22 Authors Shannon Hengen and Ashley Thomson have assembled a reference guide that covers all of the works written by the acclaimed Canadian author Margaret Atwood since 1988 including her novels Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace and the 2000 Booker Prize winner The Blind Assassin. Rather than just including Atwood's books this guide includes all of Atwood's works including articles short stories letters and individual poetry. Adaptations of Atwood's works are also included as are some of her more public quotations. Secondary entries i.e. interviews scholarly resources and reviews are first sorted by type and then arranged alphabetically by author to allow greater ease of navigation. The individual chapters are organized chronologically with each subdivided into seven categories Atwood's Works Adaptations Quotations Interviews Scholarly Resources Reviews of Atwood's Works and Reviews of Adaptations of Atwood's Works. The book also includes a chapter entitled Atwood on the Web as well as extensive author and subject indexes. This new bibliography significantly enhances access to Atwood material a feature that will be welcomed by university public and school librarians. Margaret Atwood A Reference Guide 1988-2005 will appeal not only to Atwood scholars but to students and fans of one of Canada's 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Canadian Fantasy and Science-fiction Writers Douglas Ivison,2002 Essays on the writers and works of Canadian fantasy and science fiction that have made this genre an important component of Canadian literature one that must be considered by Canadian literary scholars Documents the rapid development of Canadian fantasy and science fiction from the early 1980s to the beginning of the twenty first century Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond,Martine M. Caron,1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory

Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed fourways by name title French subject and English subject. And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works. Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers.

Canada 2012 Wayne C. Thompson, 2012-08-10 This is an annually updated presentation of Canada past and present. It is broken down into sections dealing with Canada's culture, geography, people, history from New France to the constitutional debates in the late 20th century, political system including the constitution, monarchy, executive, parliament, legal and court system, federalism and the provinces, provincial governments, parties and elections, defense, economy, future and bibliography.

Canadian Who's Who 2009 Elizabeth Lumley, 2008-12-04

Now in its ninety ninth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians. Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada. The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society. Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics, media, academia, business, sports and the arts from every area of human activity. Each entry details birth date and place, education, family, career, history, memberships, creative works, honours and awards, and full addresses. Indispensable to researchers, students, media, business, government and schools. Canadian Who's Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge.
