New Perspectives On The Cultural Revolution Harvard Contemporary China Series No 8:

New Perspectives on the Cultural Revolution William A. Joseph, Christine P.W. Wong, David Zweig, 2020-10-26 Since the Cultural Revolution data have been uncovered to illuminate that tumultuous decade In this volume 13 scholars examine the gap between the ideology of the Revolution and the harsh and contradictory reality of its outcome They focus particularly on the violence coercion and constant tension between the need for centralization to enforce policies and the need for decentralizing decision making if those goals were to be achieved

Picturing Power in the People's Republic of China Harriet Evans, Stephanie Donald, 1999 Provides an innovative reinterpretation of the cultural revolution through the medium of the poster a major component of popular print culture in China

Maoist Model Theatre Rosemary A. Roberts, 2010 Here is a convincing reflection that changes our understanding of gender in Maoist culture esp for what critics from the 1990s onwards have termed its erasure of gender and sexuality In particular the strong heroines of the yangbanxi or model works which dominated the Cultural Revolution period have been seen as genderless revolutionaries whose images were damaging to women Drawing on contemporary theories ranging from literary and cultural studies to sociology this book challenges that established view through detailed semiotic analysis of theatrical systems of the yangbanxi including costume props kinesics and various audio and linguistic systems Acknowledging the complex interplay of traditional modern Chinese and foreign gender ideologies as manifest in the model works it fundamentally changes our insights into gender in Maoist culture

New Asian Marxisms Tani Barlow, 2002-04-09 The current place of Marxism in Asian and Asian Studies thinking

Calamity and Reform in China Dali L. Yang, 1996 This is the first book length treatment of the political causes and consequences of the Great Leap Famine 1959 61 one of the worst tragedies in human history

China's Reforms and International Political Economy David Zweig, Zhimin Chen, 2009-05-21 Written by an international team of experts this important and interesting text gives vital insights into China's likely development and international influence in the next decade

Chinese Aid and African Development D. Bräutigam, 1998-06-21 Since 1957 more than 45 African countries have received aid from China yet until recently little has been known about the effectiveness or impact of this assistance Bräutigam provides the first authoritative account of China's experience as an aid donor in rural Africa In a detailed and highly readable analysis the author draws on anthropology economics organization theory and political science to explain how China's domestic agenda shaped the design of its aid and how domestic politics in African countries influenced its outcome

Contemporary Chinese Society and Politics Andrew B. Kipnis, Luigi Tomba, Jonathan Unger, 2009 The first volume brings together the best work to have been published on Chinese society and politics in the Maoist period 1949 76 Volume II meanwhile collects the key research dealing with both the theoretical implications and the empirical complexities of the post Mao evolution at the highest level of the political leadership The distinctions between urban and rural are especially significant in the People's Republic not least because of China's system of residential registration which denies rural residents any right to live permanently in a city and the final two volumes are organized with these fundamental distinctions in mind Volume III gathers the best work on topics including urban spaces e g the creation and dismantlement of the socialist city the creation of virtual cities and the making of Olympics Beijing the newly prosperous constituencies including China s new rich and the development of a huge and increasingly self identifying middle class China s working class internal migration and urban social change Volume IV includes work brought together under themes such as rural politics family farming changes in rural society in a period of economic reform and China s ethnic minorities

Partnerships for Smart Growth Wim Wiewel, Gerrit Knaap, 2005 Annotation Linking the worlds of community development higher education administration and urban design this accessible guidebook offers useful information on how universities and communities can best develop partnership projects Its focus on smart growth projects further enhances its value for those interested in how urban suburban and rural growth can be accommodated while preserving open spaces and quality of life Partnerships for Smart Growth includes 13 case studies of university community collaborations on smart growth initiatives The chapters include geographically diverse locations and urban suburban and rural projects Each case includes a comprehensive discussion of how and why the project was initiated who was involved what techniques were employed what were the pitfalls and what was the outcome The result is a book with wide appeal for university administrators land use planners and administrators scholars and community development experts

Positions ,1998 A Study of Authority and Relations in Chinese Governmental Agencies and Institutional Work Units Huiying Wei-Arthus, 2000 A study of authority and human relations in Chinese urban organizations before and after Mao s era The empirically based analysis shows how fundamental changes took place in social relations and the form of authorities since the end of the cultural revolution It illustrates how quasi charismatic patterns of authority under Mao have given way to practices and relationships that recall much older patrimonial authority relations at the micro level while the party domination nevertheless continues to prevail politically at the macro level
