New Testament Essays:

Essays in New Testament Interpretation C. F. D. Moule, 2008-11-20 Few twentieth century scholars have made so broad and deep a contribution to our understanding of the New Testament as the former Lady Margaret's Professor of Divinity at Cambridge the Rev C F D Moule This selection of his essays almost all already published in specialist journals and Festschriften represents in one volume the whole range of Professor Moule's contribution to New Testament studies Two are studies in linguistic matters several concern aspects of the theology of the New Testament some are concerned with matters historical and literary They deal with such central Christian themes as punishment forgiveness sacrifice death and resurrection Making more accessible Professor Moule's work this book will be of value to all serious students of the New Testament whether they are professional scholars undergraduates clergymen or interested and informed laymen The Old is Better Robert H. Gundry, 2010-08-01 Current study of the New Testament features many new interpretations Robert Gundry's book finds them largely wanting and defends traditional ones Several of its essays have never been published before Most of the rest though previously published have been updated and otherwise revised sometimes heavily The studies cover a wide variety of topics in New Testament study ranging from the Gospels to Revelation and much in between as for example theological diversity symbiosis between theology and genre criticism pre-Papian tradition concerning Mark and Matthew as apostolically Johannine and mishnaic jurisprudence as compatible with Jesus blasphemy In its entirety this collection of essays shows the weaknesses of many novel interpretations of the New Testament as well as the essential reliability of earliest traditions concerning the New Testament and the essential reliability of New Testament traditions themselves Rhetoric and the New Testament Stanley E. Porter, Thomas H. Olbricht, 1993-10-01 What role did classical rhetoric play in the writing of the New Testament What role does classical and modern rhetoric play in interpreting the New Testament today What role should classical and modern rhetoric play in New Testament interpretation These and related questions are asked in this collection of over twenty essays originally delivered as papers at the 1992 Heidelberg Conference on Rhetorical Criticism of Biblical Documents This conference the first of several scheduled to address fundamental rhetorical issues of increasing importance in New Testament study drew scholars from three continents and over fourteen countries making it a truly international scholarly event and this a truly cosmopolitan publication The authors varying contexts resulted in a lively and challenging discussion well reflected in this volume's essays The first part discusses rhetoric in the light of extended interpretation of a variety of New Testament texts Luke and Acts most of Paul's letters and other New Testament documents are scrutinized using various rhetorical categories In the second part questions of rhetoric and methodology are raised New approaches are tested in a number of essays that push the boundaries of traditional rhetorical study These essays provide an excellent sampling of some of the major work being done in rhetorical study of the New Testament and suggest several avenues for future research Understanding, Studying and Reading Christopher

Rowland, Crispin H. Fletcher-Louis, 1998-01-01 This collection of essays largely written by members of the Oxford theological community was presented to John Ashton on his 65th birthday in 1996 The essays deal with Elijah in Mark a Q passion narrative the Gospel thief saying John's Beloved Disciple the temple incident Jn 2 13 25 and history and theology Outside of the Gospels they discuss God's wrath in Romans 1 Philippians 1 1 11 Hebrews 4 13 Peter and Paul behind Revelation and hermeneutical method Specialists from outside the New Testament field contribute studies of the patristic doctrine of Scripture the Syriac Diatessaron William Tyndale the theology of the resurrection and the Byzantine understanding of John John Ashton was before his retirement Lecturer in New Testament and Fellow of Wolfson College Oxford The Shape of the Gospel Robert C. Tannehill, 2007-02-20 Most of the following essays reveal my interest in the significance of literary forms both the short literary forms in the Gospels such as pronouncement stories and an entire Gospel as a formed narrative I am interested in the significance of these forms not just in literary classification systems I am interested in literary form as a clue to how the text may engage hearers and readers impact their thought and life if they are sensitive respondents The Gospel stories have been shaped in ways that give them particular potentials for significant engagement Study of literary form can help us recognize these potentials from the Introduction Contents Part I Gospel Sayings and Stories 1 Tension in Synoptic Sayings and Stories 2 The Pronouncement Story and Its Types 3 Varieties of Synoptic Pronouncement Stories 4 Types and Functions of Apophthegms in the Synoptic Gospels 5 The Gospels and Narrative Literature 6 You Shall Be Complete If Your Love Includes All Matthew 5 48 Part II The Gospel of Mark 7 The Disciples in Mark The Function of a Narrative Role 8 The Gospel of Mark as Narrative Christology 9 Reading It Whole The Function of Mark 8 34 35 in Mark's Story Part III Paul's Gospel 10 Paul as Liberator and Oppressor Evaluating Diverse Views of 1 Corinthians 11 Participation in Christ A Central Theme in Pauline Soteriology New Testament Essays Raymond Edward Brown, 1965 Getting into the Text Daniel L. Akin, Thomas W. Hudgins, 2017-03-01 David Alan Black has been one of the leading voices in New Testament studies over the last forty years His contributions to Greek grammar textual criticism the Synoptic problem the authorship of Hebrews and many more have challenged scholars and students to get into the text of the New Testament like never before and to rethink the status quo based on all the evidence The present volume consists of thirteen studies written by some of Black's colleagues friends and former students on a number of New Testament topics in honor of his successful research and teaching career Not only do they address issues that have garnered his attention over the years they also extend the scholarly discussion with up to date research and fresh evaluations of the evidence making this book a valuable contribution in itself to the field that Black has devoted himself to since he began his career The Text of the New Testament in Contemporary Research Bart D. Ehrman, Michael William Holmes, 1995 This directory is part of a six volume set that provides data on over 36 000 European companies Focusing on the United Kingdom it provides information such as address phone and fax numbers e mail and Web addresses listings of a company's activities parents subsidiaries and agents brands and trademarks and financial information for 2001 and 2002 Perspectives on the New Testament Charles H. Talbert, 1985 New Testament Essays C. K. Barrett, 2010-06-01 C K Barrett's gifts as a communicator are well displayed in this collection of some of his writings. He takes his readers on a series of well organized expeditions into areas of controversy. He cuts a clear pathway through the intricacies of scholarly dispute and brings us close to the mind and heart of the men of the New Testament. Two lectures to English audiences on St John's Gospel and three given originally in German on the Acts of the Apostles take the central place in the book which concludes with a vindication of theology as an academic discipline. Theology has learnt the lesson that man lives by faith not by sight and at the same time has a sure confidence that the man who questions everything he can see will nevertheless find that his faith is not disappointed New Testament Essays Vincent Taylor, 1968 From Jesus to John Martinus C. de Boer, 1993-06-01 Marinus de Jonge was Professor of New Testament and Early Christian Literature at Leiden from 1966 to 1991. A former president of Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas, the International Society of New Testament scholars, he is best known for his work on the Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs and on the Gospel and Epistles of John. More recently his work on Jesus and early Christology has received critical acclaim. Christology in Context: The Earliest Christian Response to Jesus 1988 and Jesus: The Servant Messiah 1991. This volume of essays in his honour from a team of international scholars and admirers from Holland, Great Britain, the United States, Norway and Germany recognizes his singular and provocative contributions to our understanding of Jesus and New Testament Christology. The essays cover such topics as Jesus' self-understanding, the christological ascriptions of his earliest disciples and followers, the background to New Testament Christology in Judaism, the Christology of Paul, and the Christology of the Gospels, especially John. Together these essays constitute a significant contribution to the discussion about Jesus and the Christology of the earliest Christians New Testament Essays Raymond Edward Brown, 2010. The classic introduction to the work of Brown, bestselling author and the most widely praised Roman Catholic biblical scholar of the 20th century, is now reissued for a new generation of readers On Romans C. E. B. Cranfield, 1998. Professor Charles Cranfield takes a fresh look at some important questions currently in debate. Several of these essays are previously unpublished. Subjects include, for example, what Paul meant by the works of law, whether his meaning in the words pistis Christou was faith in Christ or Christ's faith, whether the old Testament law has a continuing place in the life of the Christian church. In Sanctification as Freedom, the author attempts to draw out the significance of the apostle's affirmation that the law of the Spirit has freed the believer from the law of sin and of death. Cranfield does not lose sight of the relevance of theology and of New Testament studies in particular to the life of the Church and of the Christian individual today New Testament Essays Angus John Brockhurst Higgins, 1959 The Word in this World Paul William Meyer, 2004-01-01. This volume brings together numerous publications that range across the New Testament canon and encompass a variety of forms from thematic essay to commentary from close exegesis to homily. All these studies highlight Paul Meyer's characteristic attention to detail skilled argument and engaging prose The New Testament Library offers authoritative commentary on every book and major aspect of the New Testament as well as classic volumes of scholarship The commentaries in this series provide fresh translations based on the best available ancient manuscripts offer critical portrayals of the historical world in which the books were created pay careful attention to their literary design and present a theologically perceptive exposition of the text

Interpreting the New Testament David Alan Black, David S. Dockery, 2001 The editors of this book contend that one of the world's best known and most influential bodies of literature is one of the least understood This is due both to the proliferation of modern hermeneutical approaches and to the lack of understanding of the historical backgrounds of the New Testament In their sequel to their earlier work New Testament Criticism and Interpretation Black and Dockery present essays on current issues and methods with the purpose of enhancing New Testament interpretation teaching and preaching and providing a useful means of learning what the New Testament is all about New Testament Essays Gary T.

Meadors, 1991-10 Apocalyptic and the New Testament Joel Marcus, Marion L. Soards, 1989-01-01 Reconciliation and Hope Robert Banks, 2006-10-22 Reconciliation and Hope New Testament Essays on Atonement and Eschatology A Festschrift presented to Dr Leon Morris on the occasion of his 60th birthday Throughout his long and distinguished career in New Testament studies Leon Morris has devoted considerable attention to the themes of atonement and eschatology the nineteen essays included in this volume pay fitting tribute to Dr Morris by reflecting and expanding on these important elements of the Christian Faith Contributing to Reconciliation and Hope are leading evangelical biblical scholars from around the world Australia Canada Germany Great Britain the Netherlands Scotland South Africa Sweden and the United States An Appreciation by David A Hubbard and a select bibliography of Morris publications complete the volume
