China's New Maritime Silk Road Hong Zhao,2015 In 2013 Chinese President Xi Jinping unveiled plans for two massive trade and infrastructure networks connecting East Asia with Europe the New Silk Road and the 21st Century Maritime Silk Road one belt one road The plans aim to reinvigorate the ancient Silk Roads with a modern network of high speed rail motorways pipelines and ports stretching across the region The idea of the New Silk Road and the New Maritime Silk Road was raised because China s domestic economy is experiencing structural changes that reflect a new normal of slower but better quality growth More importantly it signals a shift in China s strategic thinking and foreign policy towards prioritizing the relationship with neighbouring countries Hence it has many implications for Southeast Asian countries The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land-bridge Helga Zepp-LaRouche,Michael O. Rebalancing and the New Silk Road B. R. Deepak, 2018-01-10 This collaborative volume discusses the One Belt One Road or the New Silk Road initiative of Chinese President Xi Jinping from the perspectives of the Belt and Road countries This initiative has been viewed as a re globalization drive by China in the backdrop of financial crisis of the West and the latter s increasingly protectionist tendencies of late Rather than rebalancing towards a certain region this is supposed to be China s global rebalancing aimed at inclusiveness and a win win partnership The initiative has raised hopes as well as suspicions about China s goals and intentions that is whether this is in sync with China s foreign policy goals such as multipolarity no hegemonic aspirations and common security or if this is an antidote to the U S foreign policy goals in the region and China s ambition to realizing its long term vision for Asian regional and global order In this volume a galaxy of eminent academics from India China Pakistan Uzbekistan Germany and Southeast Asia have critically analysed every aspect of this mammoth project including the six major economic corridors identified by China for policy coordination infrastructure connectivity unimpeded trade monetary circulation and people to people exchanges The authors have interpreted China s peripheral regional as well as global diplomacy both over land and sea This topical volume is of interest to scholars and students of Asian studies China studies Asian history development studies international relations and international trade The Silk

Roads Peter Frankopan, 2016 Originally published in hardcover in Great Britain by Bloomsbury Publishing Plc London in 2015 Title page verso China's Grand Strategy Sarwar A. Kashmeri, 2019-07-19 In the Great Game of the 21st century gaining leadership and influence in Asia the United States is rapidly being outflanked by China which is investing in infrastructure connectivity and supply chains on an unprecedented global scale In this first book to use China s Belt and Road Initiative previously known as China s New Silk Road as a point of departure to explain why and how China is about to supersede America with regard to influence in Asia Sarwar A Kashmeri argues that the United States has a narrow window of opportunity to find a way to fit into a world in which the rules of the game are increasingly set by China U S opposition to the Belt and Road Initiative is doomed to failure so America must find creative ways to engage China strategically and he warns that the window to do so is closing fast The Belt and Road Initiative is China s ambitious project to connect itself to more than 70 countries in Central Asia Europe Africa and the Middle East through new roads rails ports sea lanes and air links This cornerstone of Chinese foreign policy under President Xi Jinping is positioning China at the center of over half of world trade and the loss of American influence and power could well lead to the end of the postwar liberal world order Far more than merely an infrastructure investment the Belt and Road Initiative is a masterful grand strategy to create nothing less than a new world order based on the Chinese model of government and its financial institutions Yet as the passing of the baton of world leadership takes place the United States seems curiously incapable or uninterested in devising a counterstrategy Even though the United States will no longer have the largest economy in the world it will still be a powerful and rich country with global alliances

The New Silk Roads Peter Frankopan, 2019 From the bestselling author of The Silk Roads comes an updated timely and visionary book about the dramatic and profound changes our world is undergoing right now as seen from the perspective of the rising powers of the East All roads used to lead to Rome Today they lead to Beijing So argues Peter Frankopan in this revelatory new book In the age of Brexit and Trump the West is buffeted by the tides of isolationism and fragmentation Yet to the East this is a moment of optimism as a new network of relationships takes shape along the ancient trade routes In The New Silk Roads Peter Frankopan takes us on an eye opening journey through the region from China's breathtaking infrastructure investments to the flood of trade deals among Central Asian republics to the growing rapprochement between Turkey and Russia This important book asks us to put aside our preconceptions and see the world from a new and ultimately hopeful perspective

China's Asian Dream Tom Miller, 2017-02-01 China Napoleon once remarked is a sleeping lion Let her sleep for when she wakes she will shake the world In 2014 President Xi Jinping triumphantly declared the lion had awakened Under his leadership China is pursuing a dream to restore its historical position as the dominant power in Asia From the Mekong River Basin to the Central Asian steppe China is flexing its economic muscles for strategic ends By setting up new regional financial institutions Beijing is challenging the post World War II order established under the watchful eye of Washington And by funding and building roads railways ports and power lines a New Silk Road across Eurasia and through the South China Sea and Indian Ocean China aims to draw its neighbours ever tighter into its embrace Combining a geopolitical overview with on the ground reportage from a dozen countries China's Asian Dream offers a fresh perspective on the rise of China and asks what does it mean for the future of Asia

Greening China's New Silk Roads Ferguson, R. J., 2021-12-07 This timely book offers a critical account of key governance challenges of the Belt and Road Initiative BRI Illustrating China's efforts to expand its idea of a sustainable eco civilization thereby greening the BRI it explores the disputes that have emerged from this process and subsequent complications resulting from geopolitical competition

The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land-Bridge, Vol 2 Helga Zepp-Larouche, 2018-06-30 Promotion of the World Land Bridge a proposal made by EIR and the Schiller Institute since the 1990s has played an important role in the worldwide reception of and development upon the Chinese Belt and Road Initiative made by President Xi Jinping in 2013 This report Volume 2 of the 2014 report of the same name builds upon the decades of research and activism by the LaRouche movement to paint a picture of the developing beautiful world that we intend to bring into being

A road to riches or a road to ruin? Sijbren de Jong, Willem Th. Oosterveld, Michel Roelen, Katharine Klacansky, Agne Silekaite, Rianne Siebenga, 2017-08-15 China's One Belt One Road OBOR project was formally introduced by Chinese President Xi Jinping in 2013 The project aimed at integrating trade and investment in Eurasia encompasses over 900 billion in planned investments of infrastructure across Central and South Asia the Middle East and Central and Eastern Europe CEE A dedicated forum for cooperation with CEE countries has been around now for several years Originally created in April 2012 the so called 16 1 framework constitutes a platform which brings heads of state together annually to strengthen dialogue and cooperation between China and the CEE region Chinese investment interests within the CEE region appear strongly related to privatization opportunities including large scale infrastructure projects and public procurement opportunities China's interest in the CEE region and the creation of the 16 1 format in particular also gives rise to concerns that China is attempting to use the region as a medium through which to influence the EU from within This influence manifests itself primarily in the form of initiatives which aim to persuade and or pressure CEE countries to adopt favorable policies vis vis China These concerns stem from two directions First there is a fear that some deals concluded with China may not comply with EU rules on public procurement or other regulations and guidelines Second there is a fear of political influencing which some see exhibited by the EU in avoiding direct references or statements towards China's legal defeat over the South China Sea after the objection by some member states China's engagement in the Middle East is arguably the most important component of the OBOR initiative as far as its strategic objectives are concerned Beijing enunciates a clear interest in developing strong structural ties within the region particularly with fossil fuel exports being the centerpiece at least for the initial stage This also means of course that China will almost inevitably get embroiled in political matters and thus pose a challenge to the interests of other key players such as Russia the US and the EU While China seeks to avoid becoming yet another outside power that meddles in the region's affairs it does already show signs of being prepared to become politically engaged In its engagement in the Middle East China's policy is banked on the hopes of being the newish entrant in the region which absolves it from any imperialist or interventionist baggage This notwithstanding regional players are going to be tempted to play the China card when dealing with the other major outside powers which will effectively pull China into the region's political vortices Given OBOR's unprecedented scale this new study by The Hague Centre for Strategic Studies HCSS investigates the extent to which Belt and Road related investments in CEE and the greater Middle East bring sufficient economic weight to both regions that at the same time can be turned into political influence If this is indeed the case a pertinent question to ask is whether China is prepared and willing to play a greater political and or security role in CEE and the Middle East in the first place In addition the paper seeks to understand whether China's role can be judged as positive or negative for regional security as seen from the viewpoint of Europe and the Netherlands

China and the Islamic World

Robert R. Bianchi, 2019-02-01 China is building a New Silk Road that runs through the heartland of the Muslim world promising it will create integrated economies and stronger ties across Eurasia and Africa Robert R Bianchi argues that while China has the financial and technical resources to accomplish its infrastructure goals it is woefully unprepared to deal with the social and political demands of its partner countries citizens China and the Islamic World explores how China's leaders and citizens are learning through their relationships with Pakistan Turkey Indonesia Iran Nigeria and Egypt that they have to respect and adjust to the aspirations of ordinary people throughout the Islamic world not just cater to the narrow band of government and business elites Bianchi demonstrates that turbulent countries along the New Silk Road are likely to transform Chinese society at least as much as China changes them This realization will be deeply unsettling for China s authoritarian rulers who desperately want to monopolize power domestically The party and state bosses have responded to challenges with a contradictory blend of flexibility abroad and rigidity at home compromising with popular demands in one country after another while refusing to negotiate many of the same issues with their own citizens This book shows how China faces a growing struggle to maintain their double sided statecraft as it becomes apparent that the New Silk Road is not a one way street

China and the Persian Gulf Dr. Mordechai Chaziza, 2019-11-14 Since China announced the Belt and Road Initiative BRI in 2013 the Gulf States have regarded it as a means for diversifying their national economies in order to reduce dependence on oil revenues and to achieve their national development strategy The Persian Gulf region has a significant role in the successful implementation of BRI Emerging strategic diplomatic and financial partnerships will enable China to control the flow of its exports to world markets The BRI has five major goals Policy coordination facilities connectivity free trade financial integration and people to people bonds Facilities connectivity which focuses on transportation and energy infrastructure is the initiatives priority The integration between the national development plans of Gulf monarchies the economic reconstruction plans of Iraq and Iran and the new economic goals of Saudi Arabia with Chinas Belt and Road vision have converged to bring forward opportunities The implementation of the new Silk Road strategy will unleash a regional infrastructure boom by connecting China with Asia Europe and Africa by land and sea boosting renminbi internationalization Nevertheless there are challenges that could complicate the envisaged bilateral partnerships Saudi Arabia The strategic synergy between the BRI and Saudi Vision 2030 has forged a joint economic development path but external conflicts Yemen Iran could derail plans Iran While Tehran has a special geographical status in West Asia Washingtons decision to withdraw from the Iran nuclear agreement might create Sino Iranian trade barriers The UAE In July 2018 bilateral relations were elevated to a comprehensive strategic partnership The synergy between the BRI and UAE Vision 2021 is multifaceted trade energy infrastructure and logistics financial services military ties tourism and cultural cooperation but very complex Most of the Gulf States are governed by monarchies are at the primary stage of industrialization and are susceptible to US and European influence The challenges Chinas ascendancy poses for the US and the inevitable geopolitical fight back in conjunction with Gulf regional turbulence mean that the BRI project will face substantive challenges in the years ahead
