New State Of War And Peace:

The Rights of War and Peace Hugo Grotius, Archibald Colin Campbell, 1901    The Ethics of War and Peace Nigel Dower, 2013-08-26 This book presents a clear and comprehensive introduction to the diverse and wide ranging ethical aspects of war and peace. In a fair minded and engaging analysis Nigel Dower introduces the different ethical theories in traditional and contemporary debates: realism, just war theory and pacifism and subjects each to detailed critical scrutiny. He frames these debates within a related but distinct framework of three approaches to international relations: namely, skeptical realism, internationalism and cosmopolitanism. The book also identifies and evaluates two further important perspectives: militarism and pacifism. Whilst analyzing the advantages and disadvantages of the different outlooks, Dower makes a strong case for a cosmopolitan pacifist position, arguing that we need to see peace in more positive terms than merely the absence of war. The book uses a wide range of examples from across the world and includes discussion of nuclear weapons, new wars, terrorism, humanitarian intervention and human security. Written as a textbook for students who have no prior knowledge of philosophical ethics, The Ethics of War and Peace is designed to help students understand and see the relevance of how a professional philosopher can engage ethically with the world. Each chapter contains a helpful survey of its contents at the beginning and a set of questions for individual reflection or group discussion at the end. This book will be essential reading for students of security studies, conflict resolution, peace studies, philosophy and political theory, and anyone interested in the ethical questions which arise from the study of war and peace.

The George A. Fuller Company, War and Peace, 1940-1947 George A. Fuller Company, 1947    War, Peace, and Reconciliation Theodore R. Weber, 2015-11-11 War, Peace and Reconciliation invites Christians and the churches into a conversation over how to think about war from a standpoint in faith. It asks how reconciliation, which is central to Christian life and doctrine, can engage the realities of war without surrendering its fundamental affirmations. It defines these realities politically by discussing the meanings of power, peace as a particular organization of power and the international system. The study of war and politics is unavoidable as is the engagement with reconciliation because all human existence and activity exist in the context of the gracious work of God to renew and reconcile the fallen creation The inquiry is theocentric and christocentric It culminates in a call to the churches to examine all their practices in the light of this perspective War, Peace and the Military Franz Kernic,2023-03-17 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the various social science approaches to explaining and interpreting war peace and the military Its central aim is to trace and reconstruct those basic assumptions constructed and thought processes undertaken by modern social sciences in their research and conceptualization of military violence and the use of force In addition to such reconstruction the aim is also to enquire into the preconditions of such thought This study therefore eschews the development of an explicit strategy in the sense of a research strategy but instead is much more concerned with thinking about its subject matter by means of re thinking and reflecting upon different theoretical approaches and problems The investigation includes a critical reexamination of the tradition of military sociological research from the beginning of modern sociology to late twentieth century theoretical approaches regarding the security focused and or war driven aspects of modern society Rethinking War And Peace Diana Francis,2004-05-20 An entirely modern argument for the irrelevance of war as a goal in international affairs
