

The Promised Pastor of the Old and New Testaments

The promised pastor of the Old Testament received and ate the opened scroll in Ez 3 then went and preached it to the rebellious people, the Jews. The promised pastor of the New Testament received and ate the opened book in Rv 10, saw all of events of the entire book of Revelation (Rv 22:8), and went and preached it to the rebellious Spiritual Israel (Rv 22:16).

Revelation is the new covenant to be fulfilled today, and it says that if one adds to or subtracts from this, then he cannot enter the kingdom of heaven, but will receive curses (plagues) (Rv 22:18-19).

However, all of the pastors of the Protestant Church and their congregation members have added to and subtracted from Revelation. Thus, Jesus fulfilled all of Revelation and sent the promised pastor, who saw all the fulfillment, to the churches. Yet, why do they not believe this promised pastor or the new covenant, Revelation?

Church Government According to the Bible Simon V.

Goncharenko, 2014-09-03 Just as the government structure of Russia differs from that of the United States and both differ from that of Great Britain so it is with church government Yet as the institution governed by God s written word the church must find and defend its governing structures using that word the Bible In this book Dr Simon Goncharenko argues that it is in fact possible to identify a specific preferred model of church polity within the Bible and to model our current church

Teacher, Leader, Shepherd Robert E. Picirilli, 2007 Teacher Leader Shepherd The New Testament Pastor does not attempt to tell the minister how to preach or to describe how the pastor should go about his work On the contrary this book focuses on an understanding of what the Bible has to say to or about the pastor and his ministry The author gives a solid treatment of the New Testament passages which speak specifically whether directly or indirectly to the role of the pastor This work is beneficial to any pastor whether a veteran or new pastor written by a former academic dean and professor of Greek and New Testament studies for many years Dr Robert E Picirilli Miraculous Gifts Thomas R. Edgar, 2001-07-25 Miraculous Gifts is a discussion of spiritual gifts in light of the basic differences between cessationism and Pentecostalism Many studies of this issue are written from a primarily theological perspective and while theological arguments are valid charismatics assert that this controversy concerns biblical gifts and miracles and is therefore a matter of faith to believe their claims with theological arguments proving unsatisfactory The fundamental question is Is this what the Bible discusses is it biblical Miraculous Gifts attempts to answer that question by providing a biblically based analysis of spiritual gifts in view of the charismatic controversy Understanding 5fold Ministry Stefan Sos, 2006-09 *Congregationalism; what it is; whence it is; how it works; why it is better than any other form of church government; and its consequent demands ...
