Entrepreneurial Small Businesses Dean A. Shepherd,Johan Wiklund,2005 The authors of this comprehensive study address why it is that some small firms perform well and others don t and whether high performing firms share characteristics that distinguish them from low performing firms By exploring bundles of resources and their interaction with other factors the authors explain important small business outcomes such as growth performance entrepreneurial activity and the chance of receiving debt or equity capital The authors find that while resources may be valuable it is essential that small businesses have the processes to facilitate the manipulation of resources into value creating strategies Rather than reaching the conclusion that more is always better the authors tease out the conditions under which certain resources are particularly valuable as well as the conditions under which these and other resources are less valuable The resource factors examined range from aspects of the human capital of the small business manager such as length of education or prior experience with business start ups to social capital variables and firm level resources such as access to financial capital and competence Representing leading edge research across several levels of analysis this volume will be a useful resource for scholars and students of entrepreneurship and small business as well as for entrepreneurs and small business owners Policymakers will find the volume helpful in understanding the effect policies may have on small businesses and the subsequent impact on the economic performance of a region Clusters Old and New Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies,2003 In recent years there has been a virtual explosion of interest in cluster development across North America Europe and newly industrialized countries This interest has been prompted by fascination with the success of Silicon Valley at reinventing itself through successive waves of technology innovation and claims by a growing number of imitators to have replicated the conditions for its success A growing number of clusters around the globe from Scotland to Bangalore and from Singapore to Israel all claim direct lineage to the original model in northern California Clusters Old and New presents the initial results of a study into the formation and growth of industry clusters across Canada Contributors investigate the process of cluster development in a wide range of locales in knowledge intensive sectors as well as more traditional ones and in both metropolitan and non metropolitan settings The authors suggest that the process of cluster formation is complex and may extend over decades While public policy plays a critical role in supporting the establishment and growth of clusters the range of factors that contribute to their success is quite varied The authors provide a basis for beginning to understand the process of cluster formation from an evolutionary perspective as well as some criteria for determining the presence or absence of true cluster dynamics in the cases under investigation Best Papers

Proceedings ... Annual Meeting of the Academy of Management Academy of Management, 1997 The Portable MBA in Strategy Liam Fahey, Robert M. Randall, 2001 Annotation This work examines practical methods for competing to win in the marketplace while laying the foundations for future success Readers will learn how the front running companies outmanoeuvre the competition are the first to recognise key trends identify the best alternative strategies and develop unique competencies Each chapter offers proven techniques practised by pioneering firms from business unit tactics to industry analyses to e commerce and integrates the underlying principles with an example Frontiers of Entrepreneurship Research ,2010 Business Networks and Strategic Alliances in China Stewart Clegg, Dr. Karen Wang, Mike Berrell, 2007 Business Networks and Strategic Alliances in China addresses how knowledge transfer and innovation are interwoven within complex networks and how social capital contributes to the acquisition of crucial resources and business success in multi type enterprises in China The book explains how China's remarkable global economic impact in recent years has developed from foreign investment and that the dominant vehicle for economic development has been the International Joint Venture IJV between Chinese manufacturers and overseas enterprises Strict guidelines on FDI mean that foreign firms have been obliged to form relationships with Chinese organizations The authors illustrate that as a direct result the quality and nature of the relations networks and alliances forged is crucial for the success of Chinese businesses A sophisticated empirical theoretical comparative and historical guide to understanding the nature of business networks in China is provided by this work As such it makes a distinct contribution to the furtherance of evidence based management theory and practice and will strongly appeal to those with an interest in management international business and Asian studies Wisconsin Small Business Forum ,1985
