The Legacy of World War II in European Arthouse Cinema Samm Deighan, 2021-06-11 World War II irrevocably shaped culture and much of cinema in the 20th century thanks to its devastating global impact that changed the way we think about and portray war This book focuses on European war films made about the war between 1945 and 1985 in countries that were occupied or invaded by the Nazis such as Poland France Italy the Soviet Union and Germany itself Many of these films were banned censored or sharply criticized at the time of their release for the radical ways they reframed the war and rejected the mythologizing of war experience as a heroic battle between the forces of good and evil The particular films examined made by arthouse directors like Pier Paolo Pasolini Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Larisa Shepitko among many more deviate from mainstream cinematic depictions of the war and instead present viewpoints and experiences of WWII which are often controversial or transgressive They explore the often complicated ways that participation in war and genocide shapes national identity and the ways that we think about bodies and sexuality trauma violence power justice and personal responsibility themes that continue to resonate throughout culture and global politics

Social Networks and the Life Course Duane F. Alwin, Diane H. Felmlee, Derek A. Kreager, 2018-03-06 This volume engages the interface between the development of human lives and social relational networks It focuses on the integration of two subfields of sociology social science the life course and social networks Research practitioners studying social networks typically focus on social structure or social organization ignoring the complex lives of the people in those networks At the same time life course researchers tend to focus on individual lives without necessarily studying the contexts of social relationships in which lives are embedded and linked to one another through social networks These patterns are changing and this book creates an audience of researchers who will better integrate the two subfields It covers the role of social networks across the life span from childhood and adolescence to midlife through old age The Politics of Performance Funding for Higher Education Kevin J. Dougherty, Rebecca S. Natow, 2015-05-15 One of the striking ways in which state governments have pursued better performance in public higher education is through the use of performance funding Performance funding involves tying state support directly to institutional performance on specific outcomes such as rates of graduation and job placement The principal rationale for performance funding has been that the introduction of market like forces will prod institutions to become more efficient delivering more bang for the buck Kevin Dougherty an expert on state performance funding finds its development puzzling First despite the great interest in it only half the states have ever adopted performance funding for higher education Moreover of the states that did adopt performance funding over half later dropped it Finally in the states that have retained performance funding over a long period of time their programs have undergone considerable changes in the amount of state funding they devote to performance funding and in the content of the indicators they use to allocate that funding In spite of this performance funding continues to attract interest as a way of improving educational outcomes This book based on an extensive ten state study aims to shed light on the social and political factors affecting the origins evolution and demise of these programs SIPP Working Paper Series, 1987 The Broadcaster, Electrical & Wireless Retailer, 1929
