New Realism:

The New Realism Edwin Bissell Holt, Walter Taylor Marvin, William Pepperell Montague, Ralph Barton Perry, Walter B. Pitkin, Edward Gleason Spaulding, 1912      New Realism and Old Reality Daniel Luther Evans, 1928      New Realism David Forrest, 2020-03-18 The tradition of British realism has changed dramatically over the last 20 years where films by directors such as Duane Hopkins Joanna Hogg Andrea Arnold Shane Meadows and Clio Barnard have suggested a markedly poetic turn This new realism rejects the instrumentalism and didacticism of filmmakers like Ken Loach in favour of lyrical and often ambiguous encounters with place where the physical processes of lived experience interacts with the rhythms of everyday life Taking these 5 filmmakers as case studies this book seeks to explore in depth this new tradition of British cinema and in the process it reignites debates over realism that have concerned scholars for decades      The New Realism Edwin Bissell Holt, Walter Taylor Marvin, William Pepperell Montague, Ralph Barton Perry, Walter B. Pitkin, Edward Gleason Spaulding, 1922

New Realism, New Barbarism Boris Kagarlitsky, 1999-09-20 Leading scholars discuss ideology and hotly contested post structuralist theory      The Status of Values in New Realism Daniel Luther Evans, 1923      A New Look at New Realism Eric Charles, 2017-09-08 This volume brings to the attention of contemporary readers a tradition of psychological thought that has received little attention over the last century Psychology s history has been unimaginatively presented as a fight between behaviorists and mentalists A third alternative the New Realism which cuts through that dichotomy has been lost The New Realism was indeed once new This volume provides a glimpse of how this school of thought attempted to redefine the notion of mental processes including consciousness in psychological theorizing Holt s rejected the nativity of iconoclastic Watsonian behaviorists and thus the New Realism was thoughtful in ways that behaviorist social engineering was not The implications of these innovations in psychological theorizing are traced from the beginning of the twentieth century to the contemporary period The contributors provide these intellectual links along with efforts to look at the relatedness of the human organism and its world At their beginning these ideas are embedded in a reverence for William James s work particularly his later Radical Empiricism In contemporary psychology this legacy has given us the framework of ecological psychology as we know it today and provides the basis for several modern critiques of cognitive psychology The present volume opens the door for future historical inquiries This is an exemplary addition to the series on the History of Psychological Ideas      Introduction to New Realism Maurizio Ferraris, 2014-12-18 Introduction to New Realism provides an overview of the movement of contemporary thought named New Realism by its creator and most celebrated practitioner Maurizio Ferraris Sharing significant concerns and features with Speculative Realism and Object Oriented Ontology New Realism can be said to be one of the most prescient philosophical positions today Its desire to overcome the postmodern antirealism of Kantian origin and to reassert the importance of truth and objectivity in the name of a new Enlightenment has had an enormous resonance both in Europe and in the US Introduction to New Realism is the first volume dedicated to exposing this continental movement to an anglophone audience Featuring a foreword by the eminent contemporary philosopher and leading exponent of Speculative Realism Iain Hamilton Grant the book begins by tracing the genesis of New Realism and outlining its central theoretical tenets before opening onto three distinct sections The first Negativity is a critique of the postmodern idea that the world is constructed by our conceptual schemas all the more so as we have entered the age of digitality and virtuality The second thesis positivity proposes the fundamental ontological assertion of New Realism namely that not only are there parts of reality that are independent of thought but these parts are also able to act causally over thought and the human world The third thesis normativity applies New Realism to the sphere of the social world Finally an afterword written by two young scholars explains in more detail the relationship between New Realism and other forms of contemporary realism

Manifesto of New Realism Maurizio Ferraris, 2014-12-01 Retraces the history of postmodern philosophy and proposes solutions to overcome its impasses Philosophical realism has taken a number of different forms each applied to different topics and set against different forms of idealism and subjectivism Maurizio Ferraris's Manifesto of New Realism takes aim at postmodernism and hermeneutics arguing against their emphasis on reality as constructed and interpreted While acknowledging the value of these criticisms of traditional dogmatic realism Ferraris insists that the insights of postmodernism have reached a dead end Calling for the discipline to turn its focus back to truth and the external world Ferraris's manifesto which sparked lively debate in Italy and beyond offers a wiser realism with social and political relevance In the new atmosphere of Anglophone continental thought realism is not just a viable option but is arguably home to the most promising innovations of our time Ferraris will serve as a welcome new influence from the Foreword by Graham Harman

The New Realism Edwin Bissell Holt, 1922      The New Realists Sidney Janis Gallery, 1962      A Theory of Direct Realism and the Relation of Realism to Idealism John Evan Turner, 1925      The New Scholasticism Edward Aloysius Pace, James Hugh Ryan, 1928 Includes section Book Reviews      The New Realism: Coöperative Studies in Philosophy by Edwin B. Holt Edwin Bissell Holt, 1912      New Realism and Contemporary Philosophy Gregor Kroupa, Jure Simoniti, 2020-06-25 This open access book advances the current debate in continental realism In the field of contemporary continental ontology Speculative Realist thinkers are now grappling with the genealogy of their ideas in the history of modern philosophy The Speculative Realism movement prompted a debate criticizing the predominant postmodernist orientation in philosophy which located its origins in Kantian correlationism which supposedly ended the period of early modern naive realist metaphysics by showing that the mind and the outside world can only ever be understood as correlates The debate over a new kind of realism has attracted many supporters and critics In order to refocus its specific interpretation of modern philosophy in general and of the Kantian gesture in particular this volume brings together major authors working on contemporary ontology and historians of ideas It underlines and illustrates the fact that contemporary continental philosophy is rediscovering its past in original ways by productively re interpreting some of the key concepts of modern philosophy The perspectives and accounts of the key concepts of the history of philosophy are different in the views of individual contributors and sometimes radically so yet the discussion between contemporary realists and their critics shows that the real battleground of new ideas lies not in developing the philosophical motifs of the end of the 20th century but rather in rethinking the milestones of modern philosophy The eBook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 3 0 licence on www.bloomsburycollections.com Present-day Thinkers and the New
