New Third World:

The New Third World Alfonso Gonzalez, Jim Norwine, 2020-11-09 This book characterizes the Third World at the close of the twentieth century It provides an excellent interdisciplinary exploration of the meanings measures patterns and problems associated with the concept of the Third World The Emergence Of The Nioe Ideology Craig Murphy, 2019-07-11 This study traces the political history of the ideas underlying Third World calls for a New International Economic Order Filling a significant gap in the literature the book shows that NIEO ideology has a direct unbroken line of development extending back to World War II when a new international economic order the Bretton Woods system was created Dr Murphy maintains that NIEO ideology is not rooted only in Third World acceptance of Prebisch s views on trade rather it evolved from Third World attempts to cope with problems and opportunities that emerged as the Bretton Woods system was created operated and began to break down By the 1970s the ideology had become a complex and coherent analysis of the economic position of Third World states including a political analysis of how Third World views could be made dominant Many of Dr Murphy s conclusions challenge the conventional wisdom about the Third World position of the NIEO In addition his study offers insight into the relatively unexplored area of how changes in political and social consciousness affect international systems and provides grounds on which officials from both the South and the North can see the others views as less alien Militarization And The International Arms Race In Latin America Augusto Varas, 2021-10-28 Military conflicts and dictatorships in Latin America are the main consequences of the increasingly autonomous role of the armed forces in the region asserts noted scholar Augusto Varas and international factors related to the expansion of weapon industries in the North and the increasing flow of financial resources to Latin America are accelerating the arms race Varas discusses the historical function of the armed forces in local politics the new ideology of the national security doctrine and the process of conflict perception by the Latin American military He also analyzes the inevitable relations between the arms race and the political role of the region s armed institutions Using Chile as an example he places these factors in context and illustrates how political crisis can escalate into a regional arms race He then concludes with a discussion of the links between prospects for democracy in the region and demilitarization and disarmament Organizing Industrial Development Rolf H.
