New Minorities Old Conflicts:

New Minorities, Old Conflicts Sheila Allen, 1971 Shifting Protracted Conflict Systems Through Local Interactions Tamra Pearson d'Estrée, 2023-12-29 This volume explores the evolution of theoretical and practical approaches to intervening in protracted conflicts following the work of Herb Kelman Interactive problem solving as developed by Kelman and others sought to increase understanding about the microprocesses of international relations Kelman early on emphasised the centrality of an interactive approach for constructing new identities new narratives and new ways forward Transforming conflict systems requires strategic attention to the interactions between agents of change that provide stability or induce shift This volume on interactive conflict approaches includes both critical reflections and new ideas from scholar practitioners who have developed revised and expanded these approaches Contributors take up important issues from the shape and likelihood of solutions in intractable conflicts to how individuals can exist in realities with seemingly irresolvable inner and outer conflicts The volume represents the best of current thinking about how the mechanisms theoretical framework and application of interactive problem solving should be moved into the twenty first century context of increasing complexity increasing uncertainty and increasing polarisation This book will be of interest to students of peace studies conflict resolution and international relations Double Passage George Gmelch, 1992 Oral histories reveal the attitudes and emotions associated with emigration and return Language Policy and Conflict Prevention Iryna Ulasiuk, Laurențiu Hadîrcă, William Romans, 2018-04-10 Language policy can promote stability For many individuals and groups language is a key component of identity and threats to it can raise tensions Respect for linguistic rights whilst also considering a state's need to maintain cohesion reduces conflict potential The OSCE High Commissioner on National Minorities promotes functional solutions to such contentious issues and the Oslo Recommendations regarding the Linguistic Rights of National Minorities address these challenges This book analyses the components of a balanced legal and policy framework on language use with a view to preventing conflict In addition to reviewing the work of the OSCE HCNM in this area it also draws upon the expertise of other international organisations and leading academics working in this field See inside the book Emigration and Caribbean Literature Malachi McIntosh, Wanda, 2016-04-29 During and after the two World Wars a cohort of Caribbean authors migrated to the UK and France Dissecting writers like Lamming Caire and Glissant McIntosh reveals how these Caribbean writers were pushed to represent themselves as authentic spokesmen for their people coming to represent the concerns of the emigrant intellectual community Community Work and Racism Ashok Ohri, Basil Manning, Paul Curno, 2023-03-24 First published in 1982 Community Work and Racism takes as its theme the fundamental need of the black community in Britain to be freed from the disabling effects of white racism both in the individual and institutional forms Starting from the premise that racism is a white problem in Britain the book argues that community work must put white racism on everyone's local and national alliances in the fight against racism in British society The contributors consider the response or lack of it there has so far been by white community work to racism and look at the state's response to racism as it impinges on community work They discuss black community action and initiatives on racism explore alliances which have come into being in the fight against racism and examine the conditions which make such alliances possible This book will be of interest to students of sociology public policy race and ethnic studies The Social Analysis of Class Structure Frank Parkin, 2013-11-05 Tavistock Press was established as a co-operative venture between the Tavistock Institute and Routledge Kegan Paul RKP in the 1950s to produce a series of major contributions across the social sciences This volume is part of a 2001 reissue of a selection of those important works which have since gone out of print or are difficult to locate Published by Routledge 112 volumes in total are being brought together under the name The International Behavioural and Social Sciences Library Classics from the Tavistock Press Reproduced here in facsimile this volume was originally published in 1974 and is available individually The collection is also available in a number of themed mini sets of between 5 and 13 volumes or as a complete collection Crisis and Conflict Management in Nigeria Since 1980: Governance and conflict management Mahmood Yakubu, 2005 Host Responses to Migrant Labour in Western Europe Andreas Svrakov, 1974 Asians In Britain Rozina Visram, 2002-04-20 In 1616 an East Indian was christened with the name of Peter at St Dionis Backchurch in London This history explores the history of Indian communities in Britain since that first recorded instance From the original immigrants to the large waves of the 1950s the author looks at patterns of migration Indian views on their adopted society treatment of immigrant communities by government and the dominant society and the political activities of Indians for acceptance in Britain and the end of colonial rule in India Distributed by Stylus Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Social and Economic Studies, 1976 Designs for Alienation Devorah Kalekin-Fishman, 1998 Centering on studies of alienation in varieties of institutional milieus as well as on current theoretical debates this volume explains how social institutions concretely frame and foster alienation legitimizing the creation of others who are disempowered manipulated and marginalized Among the writers are researchers from all around the globe Thus the book presents a panoramic view of how alienation is brought about in different cultures including the cultures which are generated by computers Spokesman, 1977 Teaching in the Multi-cultural School James Lynch, 1981 Ethnicity, Culture, and Communication Sitara Parvin, 1997 Examines the communication environment of the Bangladeshi community in Bradford a northern British city based on research done during 1986-1988 Career Development in Britain Anthony Gordon Watts, Donald Edwin Super, Jennifer M.
