A New Penguin Leunig Michael Leunig, 2005 Michael Leunig's words and pictures were first published in Australia in 1965. He was born in Melbourne and now lives on a farm in north east Victoria. A New Penguin Leunig comprises pieces that have previously appeared in the Melbourne Age and the Sydney Morning Herald. The Second Penguin Leunig Michael Leunig, 1983. The Penguin Leunig Michael Leunig, 1983. The Penguin Leunig Michael Leunig, 2014. A special 40th anniversary edition of the very first collection of cartoons by the inimitable Michael Leunig. Ecological Pioneers Martin Mulligan, Stuart Hill, 2001-10-22. Whenever the history of ecological thought has been written, the contributions of Australian thinkers have been omitted. Yet Australia, as a continent of extreme rare and complex environments, has produced a startling group of ecological pioneers. Across a wide range of human endeavour, Australian thinkers and innovators, whether they have thought of themselves as environmentalists or not, have made some truly original contributions to ecological thought. Ecological Pioneers traces the emergence of ecological understandings in Australia. By constructing a social history with chapters focusing on different fields in the arts, sciences, politics and public life, the authors bring to life the work of significant individuals. Some of the ecological pioneers featured include Joseph Banks, Russell Drysdale, Judith Wright, Myles Dunphy, Philip Crosbie Morrison, Vincent Serventy, Francis Ratcliffe, the Gurindji and Yolngu peoples, Bill Mollison, Jack Munday, Val Plumwood, Michael Leunig and many more. No Sense of Entitlement Heather Thomson, 2023-09-25. How might we keep alive the interests and concerns of protest theologies and the constructive contributions they make? Feminist liberation and postcolonial theologies offer guiding questions for this task. What is the purpose of theology? Whose interests are being served? What might be the public effects of this theology? This book attends to these questions through a collection of publications over the lifetime of one feminist theologian. Growing up in Australia as these new protest theologies were emerging, Thomson recalls the influences that went into forming her as the theologian she became. She specialized in hermeneutics, looking for stars and compasses that might guide her theology into these new territories with a willingness to listen to the Christian tradition for its life-giving words and a willingness to critique it for the ideologies it carried. This double hermeneutic can be seen throughout her work. The chapters in this book are divided thematically into five parts: Theology and Teaching, Public Theology, The Church, The Atonement, and Being Human. Her interests in feminist and liberation theologies inform each theme so that she might pass on theology better than she received it. Spirituality of Later Life Elizabeth Mackinlay, 2014-06-11. Humor expresses a certain heroic defiance in the face of life's most challenging experience and provides a valuable resource for the celebration of life and the divine comedy of faith, hope and love. From the book chapter by Melvin A. Kimble. PhD Studies have shown that as many people age, their spirituality deepens. Spirituality of Later Life.
