New Scripture Way Of The Cross:

The New Scripture Way of the Cross Bill Huebsch, William Huebsch, 1993-01-31 Praying the Stations booklets are tailored to a specific audience and can be used year after year These booklets are appropriate for group and or individual use

The New Stations of the Cross Megan McKenna, 2003-01-21 One of today's most popular and respected Catholic writers presents the first guide to the new Stations of the Cross reflecting the revisions made by Pope John Paul II A traditional devotion for Catholics for more than four hundred years the Stations of the Cross commemorates the route Jesus traveled from being sentenced to death crucified and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem In the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the Gospels Over the past eight years however Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution The new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which Jesus was subjected In explaining his reasons for revising the stations the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship In this helpful authoritative guide Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope John Paul II uses on Good Friday She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day Catholics and Episcopalians

The Way of the Cross Fr. Mark Toups, 2019-12-16 Experience the way of the cross as you never have before Rather than meditating about Christ's journey to the cross pray with him Jesus as an observant Jewish man would have prayed the Psalms throughout the day and drawn strength and peace from them In The Way of the Cross Praying the Psalms with Jesus Fr Toups invites us to step closer to Christ and pray beside him drawing strength from Scripture during his last moments before the crucifixion Each station features A short reading from Scripture A brief meditation A Psalm to pray with Christ

Jeffrey Kirby, STD,2020-09-18 When a loved one leaves the Catholic Faith it can be devastating Often we feel helpless unable to do anything to bring them back Yet there is something we can do The best way to bring our loved ones back to the Faith is through prayer In addition to invitations and conversations we can t forget the power we have to pray for them What better way to do that than by joining our fears and sufferings with those of Jesus in the Stations of the Cross In this Way of the Cross for Loved Ones Who Have Left the Faith the fourteen Stations have two emphases intercession for loved ones and guidance for those still practicing the Faith While contemplating our Savior s sacrificial love readers of this devotional can intercede for friends and family as they spiritually carry the cross with Jesus asking him to lead our loved ones back to
