Miniatures arméniennes Frédéric Macler, 1913

The Armenians in the Medieval Islamic World Seta B.

Dadoyan, 2017-09-08 In the second of a three volume work Seta B Dadoyan explores the Armenian condition from the 970s to the end of the fourteenth century This period marked the gradual loss of semi autonomy on the traditional mainland and the rise of Armenian power of diverging patterns in southeastern Asia Minor north Syria Cilicia and Egypt Dadoyan s premise is that if Armenians and Armenia have always been located in the Middle East and the Islamic world then their history is also a natural part of that region and its peoples She observes that the Armenian experience has been too complicated to be defined by simplistic constructs centered on the idea of a heroic yet victimized nation She notes that a certain politics of historical writing supported by a culture of authority has focused sharply on episodes and in particular on the genocide For her sources Dadoyan has used all available and relevant primary and secondary Armenian sources as well as primary Arab texts and sources This book will stimulate re evaluation of the period and re conceptualizing Armenian and Middle Eastern histories

The Armenians in the Medieval Islamic World Seta B. Dadoyan, 2017-07-28 In the third volume of the trilogy Seta B Dadoyan focuses on social and cultural aspects rather than the core political focus exhibited in her first two volumes Her objective is to suggest political readings of these themes and related texts by revealing hitherto unstudied and novel interactions in the cities of Asia Minor during the Mongol Period Dadoyan focuses on the Armenian condition and role in the medieval Islamic world She argues that if the entire region was the habitat of most of the Armenians their history too is part of these locations and peoples Dadoyan draws the outlines of a new philosophy of Armenian history based on hitherto obscured patterns of interaction The first three chapters of this volume are dedicated to the images of Prophet Muhammad in Armenian literature Dadoyan shows that direct interactions and borrowings happened regularly from Islamic sciences reform projects poetry and arts Dadoyan argues that the cosmopolitan urban environments were radically different from rural areas and close interactions took different and unexpected patterns In the last part of the volume she presents the first and only polemical apologetic Armenian texts addressed to Islam at the end of the fourteenth century This book is essential for all historians and Middle East scholars and is the latest volume in Transaction s Armenian Studies series Dictionary

The Armenians in the Medieval Islamic World, Volume Three Seta B. Dadoyan, 2013-09-23 In this first of a massive three volume work Seta B Dadoyan studies the Armenian experience in the medieval Islamic world and takes the reader through hitherto undiscovered paradigmatic cases of interaction with other populations in the region Being an Armenian Dadoyan argues means having an ethnic ancestry laden with narratives drawn from the vast historic Armenian habitat Contradictory trends went into the making of Armenian history yet most narratives fail to reflect this rich texture Linking Armenian Islamic history is one way of dealing with the problem Dadoyan s concern is also to outline revolutionary elements in the making of Armenian ideologies and politics This extensive work captures the multidimensional nature of the Armenian experience in the medieval Islamic world The author holds that every piece of literature including historical writing is an artifact It is a composition of many elements arranged in certain forms order sequence proportion detail intensity etc The author has composed and arranged the larger subjects and their sub themes in such a way as to create an open dynamic continuity to Armenian history that is intellectually intriguing aesthetically appealing and close to lived experiences Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson, 2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three aspects of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present Illuminated Armenian Manuscripts to the Year 1000 A.D. Dickran Kouymjian, 1977 Orientalia , 1926 The Library of Mark Kalustian Featuring Travel & Exploration , 2002 A *Catalogue of the Library of the Late A.G.
