Entering the Griever's Tunnel: Soft Care Ministry to the Bereaved Saundra L. Washington D.D.,2010-09-24 This eBook was created to assist Christians desiring to minister to those who have suffered loss due to death in understanding the complex phenomenon of grief b increase sensitivity to the bereaved c offer effective techniques for providing Soft Care support and d provide spiritual resources to share with the bereaved Establishing a Ministry to the Bereaved in a Local Church Fred H. Strasser,2006

A Necessary Grief Larry J. Michael,2014-12-01 A handbook to enable ministry leaders to help others through bereavement Grief is a difficult topic that ministry leaders deal with on a regular basis Do they have confidence in helping those who are suffering the loss of a loved one Do they feel equipped to meet the differing needs that occur in the life of a survivor Can they lead someone through a process of grief reconciliation Are they able to plan and implement a bereavement ministry in their church or parish Here is a book that can help leaders in a practical way to minister to those who are grieving In addition they will discover essential tools to deal with grief s difficult questions Drawing upon his thirty years of experience as a pastor and as a professional grief counselor Dr Michael provides a valuable resource for pastors and other grief leaders to use within their churches and organizations and their surrounding communities This work is a practical guide that will bring a greater understanding of the impact that loss has upon individuals and will provide competent counsel for ministering to them In addition it will equip the leader to implement a ministry of grief education and bereavement within a church or organization Equipping the Church with Grief Ministry Skills Dr. Michael D. Baker,2022-01-26 This project is a training tool for Christian leaders to educate and equip leader and laity alike with the knowledge of the field of grief and to equip them to improve their ministry to the bereaved This book can be used by denominational leaders conventions and church leaders to train pastors deacons and lay leaders in grief ministry skills The book examines the theological dimensions of death and grief as well as the theoretical foundations of grief both normal grief and complicated Also the book identifies essential grief ministry skills and the practical application of those skills The book is both educational and practical This book can be used in a seminary class room or can be used by associations to develop the grief ministry skills of its local pastors This book can also be used in the local church to equip deacons and lay leaders to better minister to its congregants This book holds value for its commitment to examining the field of grief while holding to Christian principles Most literature that combines the knowledge of grief and Christian principles either prepares a person for counseling or ministers to the person that has experienced loss This book can in fact assist those studying for a career in grief counseling and at the same time help those experiencing loss The intention of the author is help the professional as well as the layman prepare for grief ministry and develop specific skills to assist them in their ability to minister to the bereaved

Leading Today's Funerals Dan S. Lloyd,1997-10-01 This concise guide to bereavement ministry helps pastors lead people through funerals that honor the deceased and comfort those left behind The Ministry of Lament Gene Fowler,2022-05-17

Through his own hard won wisdom as a pastor who is thoroughly acquainted with grief Gene Fowler shows how these biblical and contemporary understandings of lament provide invaluable guidance for the pastor who knowing that the grieving of irrevocable losses is an ever present reality in the life of the congregation seeks realistic and reliable guidance in how to care for the bereaved and how to enable the congregation to become a genuine community of fellow mourners Donald Capps Princeton Theological Seminary Gene Fowler skillfully maneuvers the winding road of bereavement with the psalms of lament as accompaniment With attention to the terrain of individuality as well as the congregational setting Fowler traverses new territory in a twenty first century approach to caring for grieving people Unlike an interstate with its clear ramps markers and exits the valley of the shadow of death is uneven with hidden crevices detours and dimly lit passages Challenging the traditional understanding of grief as a series of universal stages unfolding according to a preconceived timetable Fowler draws from psychotherapists and theologians to ground a new relationship between spirituality and grief Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Perkins School of Theology SMU While making a compelling case for how notions of care have been hijacked truncated and curtailed Gene Fowler expands the ability of caregivers and congregations to provide the long term acts of faithful healing that deep loss requires The book is given particular clarity through examples of movies books stories and Psalms that help healers see anew their task to compassionately and creatively encourage the bereaved as they rewrite the story of their lives Andrew L McDonald Senior Pastor Westminster Church Lincoln Nebraska

Grief Ministry Terence P. Curley, 2016 Offering solace and encouragement to those who grieve is a critical aspect of the church's ministry of mercy and love To find your place within grief ministry and plan this important ministry from first response to spiritual guidance there is no better mentor than Fr Terence Curley In this guide Fr Curley pays attention to all of the factors contributing to a grief minister's multifaceted work including parish support and his or her own loss history Symptoms of loss trust and hints for conversations with the grieving are topics touched by this detailed and sensitive guide This book a fully revised edition of Fr Curley's earlier book The Ministry of Consolers is a necessary tool for parishes hospices educational institutions and all those attending to the bereaved

The Bereavement Ministry Program Jan C. Nelson, David A. Aaker, 1998 The Bereavement Ministry Program helps clergy or lay ministers to minister effectively to those who for whatever reason are working their way through the grieving process

Equipping the Church with Grief Ministry Skills Michael D. Baker, 2022-01-26 This project is a training tool for Christian leaders to educate and equip leader and laity alike with the knowledge of the field of grief and to equip them to improve their ministry to the bereaved This book can be used by denominational leaders conventions and church leaders to train pastors deacons and lay leaders in grief ministry skills The book examines the theological dimensions of death and grief as well as the theoretical foundations of grief both normal grief and complicated Also the book identifies essential grief ministry skills and the practical application of those skills The book is both educational and practical This book can be used in a seminary class room or can be used by associations to develop the grief ministry skills of its local pastors

This book can also be used in the local church to equip deacons and lay leaders to better minister to its congregants. This book holds value for its commitment to examining the field of grief while holding to Christian principles. Most literature that combines the knowledge of grief and Christian principles either prepares a person for counseling or ministers to the person that has experienced loss. This book can in fact assist those studying for a career in grief counseling and at the same time help those experiencing loss. The intention of the author is help the professional as well as the layman prepare for grief ministry and develop specific skills to assist them in their ability to minister to the bereaved. A Christian Ministry to the Bereaved James Frederick Talbot, 1977 Ministering to the Mourning Warren Wiersbe, David Wiersbe, 2006-04-01

Formerly titled Comforting the Bereaved, this practical insightful guide gives direction to pastors and lay leaders of all levels of experience. Included are recommended Scriptures to read, an explanation of the stages of grief, approaches to conducting funerals in special circumstances such as suicide victims of crime, multiple family deaths, or when the deceased is unknown to the pastor, signs of healthy and unhealthy grief, and how to help survivors cope. Grief, Loss, and Death Andrew J

Weaver, Halbert Weidner, 2014-01-14. Learn to balance the professional demands of your ministry with your personal needs. No amount of research, study, or planning can prepare pastoral care givers for the stress placed on their personal lives by the demands of their ministries. But Grief, Loss, and Death: The Shadow Side of Ministry can help anyone involved in pastoral counseling close the gap between their professional and personal needs, encouraging them to use the stress, loss, and grief that accompanies pastoral care giving as opportunities to humanize their ministries and reaffirm their faith. This unique book offers comfort and solace to those in the chaplaincy who are torn between professional obligations and the limits and boundaries of the shadow side of their ministry; the human side. The shadow side of ministry shoots a bullet through the brain that does not kill or prevent thinking or feeling. But the bullet creates a hole, a long, hollow, empty wound that thinking and feeling must somehow bypass. The wounded minister does not recover; the previous self cannot remember what the old self thought or felt. Like a veteran of a secret war, there may be a new life after the shameful wound, but no public way to heal. But there is a public way of speaking about it, and this may help relieve some of the shame and some of the self-blaming. Author Halbert Weidner. Grief, Loss, and Death: The Shadow Side of Ministry can help in your search for the answers to questions you may have already found yourself asking, including: Do I prefer co-workers or friends? How did I lose focus of my original goals? How did I become isolated? How can I share authority without giving up responsibility? How do I cope when family issues arise? The book also addresses issues of illness, death, and suicide, funerals, the confrontation between joy and sorrow, and how life's stages are often like the Stations of the Cross. Grief, Loss, and Death: The Shadow Side of Ministry is help against despair. Newcomers to the profession can use the book as a guide to the difficulties that lie ahead, and experienced pastoral care givers can employ it as a catalogue to be consulted when all hope seems lost. Comfort the Grieving Paul

Tautges, 2015-01-06. Until the end of time, when the curse of sin is finally removed, suffering will be a large part of the human experience and a large part of that suffering will be walking through the painful reality of death Death writes Paul Tautges provides a natural opportunity not only for ministry to others but also for personal growth in ministers Those who shepherd others through the pain and loss that accompanies death should seek to offer wise and biblical counsel on these precious and painful occasions This book is a treasure chest of pastoral theology that will equip you to reach out to those who grieve with the Christ centered comfort of God rooted in the gospel The theological foundation espoused here as well as the numerous practical helps that are included will help any servant of the Lord to point the hearts and minds of the bereaved to the man of sorrows who is acquainted with grief Isaiah 53 3 The Practical Shepherding series of booklets provides pastors and ministry leaders with advice and practical help to do the work of pastoral ministry in a local church In Comfort Those Who Grieve experienced pastor Paul Tautges offers readers a guide to comforting those dealing with death through the hope of the gospel

Grief Melissa M. Kelley, 2010-03-12 The experience of grief has been a source of intrigue and curiosity throughout history and it continues to stimulate thought and theory in various fields of study Unfortunately these fields tend to function in isolation from each other The result is a substantial disconnect between grief research theory and care which has evolved greatly over the last two decades and ministerial practice Using a metaphor of grief as a mosaic Melissa Kelley presents contemporary grief theory and research integrated with important theological religious and ministerial perspectives Written in an accessible way for ministers ministers in training and all pastoral and spiritual caregivers this book provides the most up to date theory and research in grief to help inform their care of others Through exploration of critical topics including attachment to God meaning making and religious coping in grief readers are brought right to the heart of a contemporary understanding of grief

Grief, Transition, and Loss Wayne Edward Oates, In his creative pastoral care and counseling series veteran counselor Wayne Oates shares ideas from a lifetime of ministry Oates focuses on life situations in addition to death that can cause grief depression and a sense of loss such as divorce job change or relocation More common than ever in today s world these events offer opportunities for personal caregiving by ministers friends and family members

Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry Robert Valle, Paula Kosin, 2023-02-01 All Christians are responsible for consoling those who have lost a loved one An active parish bereavement ministry involves many parishioners performing various forms of compassionate service In Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry author Robert Valle guides parish leaders toward creating a bereavement ministry that flows from the liturgical and pastoral vision of the Church s official funeral rites He explains the theology and key pastoral insights of the Order of Christian Funerals OCF and outlines the phases of bereavement ministry from accompanying the bereaved at the time of death to the preparation of the funeral liturgies then home visits and acts of compassion throughout the following year This resource provides practical advice and downloadable materials for training ministers in the theological spiritual and human dimensions essential for effective bereavement ministry Contributing author Paula Kosin provides scripts and other editable downloads for facilitating a grief
