Pentecostalism is a growing movement in world Christianity. However, the growth of Pentecostalism in South Africa has faced some challenges, including the abuse of religion by some prophets. This book first names these prophets and the churches they lead in South Africa and then makes use of literary and media analysis to analyse the religious practices by the prophets in relation to cultism. Additionally, the book analyses the celebrity cult and how it helps promote the prophets in South Africa. The purpose of this book is threefold: First, to draw parallels between the abuse of religion and cultism; Second, to illustrate that it is cultic tendencies, including the celebrity cult, that has given rise to many prophets in South Africa; Last, to showcase that the challenge for many of these prophets is that the Pentecostal tradition is actually anti cultism, and thus there is a need for them to rethink their cultic tendencies in order for them to be truly relevant in a South African context. When We Walk By Kevin F. Adler, Donald W. Burnes, 2023-11-07

How to end homelessness in America: a must read guide to understanding housing instability, supporting our unhoused neighbors, and reclaiming our humanity. A deeply humanizing analysis that will change the way you think about poverty and homelessness for the socially engaged reader. Isabel Wilkerson's Caste and Matthew Desmond's Evicted. Think about the last time that you saw or interacted with an unhoused person. What did you do? What did you say? Did you offer money or a smile, or did you avert your gaze? When We Walk takes an urgent look at homelessness in America, showing us what we lose in ourselves and as a society when we choose to walk past and ignore our neighbors in shelters, insecure housing, or on the streets. And it brilliantly shows what we stand to gain when we embrace our humanity and move toward evidence-based, people-first, community-driven solutions, offering social analysis, economic and political histories, and the real stories of unhoused people. Authors Kevin F. Adler and Donald W. Burnes, with Amanda Banh and Andrijana Bilbija, recast chronic homelessness in the U.S. as a byproduct of twin crises: our social services systems are failing, and so is our humanity. Readers will learn why our brains have been trained to overlook our unhoused neighbors. The social, economic, and political forces that shape myths like "all homeless people are addicts" and "they'd have a house if they got a job." What conservative economics gets wrong about housing insecurity. What relational poverty is, and how to shift away from us versus them thinking. That for many Americans, housing insecurity is just one missed paycheck away. Who the homeless really are, and why that might surprise you. What you can do to help, starting today. A necessary, deeply humanizing read that goes beyond theory and policy analysis to offer engaged solutions with compassion and heart. When We Walk is a must read for anyone who cares about homelessness, housing solutions, and their own humanity.
