Mirette And Bellini Cross Niagara Falls:

Mirette and Bellini Cross Niagara Falls Emily Arnold McCully, 2014-06-30 The world's most beloved wire walkers are back. In this adventure Mirette and Bellini sail to America where they have accepted an invitation to cross Niagara Falls. Mirette soon discovers that the usual risks of high wire walking are intensified by cutthroat competition. It's courage and skill that bring Mirette and Bellini through even the toughest challenges and make both Mirette and this book a winner. The Read-aloud Handbook Jim Trelease, 2006 Explains the importance of reading aloud to children, offers guidance on how to set up a read-aloud atmosphere in the home or classroom and recommends titles to select. Contemporary Challenges in Teaching Young Children Gayle Mindes, 2019-09-02 Contemporary Challenges in Teaching Young Children provides both veteran and aspiring early childhood educators with the information and tools they need to build on their understanding of developmentally appropriate practice. Teachers face many challenges including family configuration, social and political stressors related to accountability requirements, funding shortages, and the resulting need to teach with fewer resources. This innovative book focuses exclusively on problem solving at the classroom level and fosters creative methods of ensuring best practices are in place for all children, including those with limited experience in formal social settings and a lack of self-regulatory behaviors. Drawing on current research and their own wealth of experience, expert contributors cover topics from the critical importance of social-emotional learning to culturally responsive teaching to using technology to empower teachers and learners. Written in accessible, non-technical language, this book addresses complex factors affecting child development, guiding readers through the best strategies for tackling real problems in their practice. Great Books for Girls Kathleen Odean, 2002 Evaluates fiction and nonfiction books featuring girls and women in positive roles, ranking each entry by reading level. Developing Better Readers and Writers Using Caldecott Books Kathryn I. Matthew, 2006 Contains 100 ready-to-use lesson plans and library activities, each featuring a different Caldecott Medal or Honor book. Each plan integrates the reading and writing process by introducing different forms of writing and includes a summary of the featured book and author and illustrator information. Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books, 2000 School Library Journal, 2001 Constructivism Across the Curriculum in Early Childhood Classrooms Christine Chaillé, 2008 Former President of NAECTE and co-author of The Young Child As Scientist, Christine Chaille brings a Reggio Emilia-inspired, fresh, friendly, and innovative introduction to constructivist curriculum for educators in preschool to primary classrooms. Designed to be a readable and user-friendly source for teachers who are looking for guidance and inspiration when incorporating constructivism and Reggio Emilia ideas into their classroom, the chapters in this book are organized into two categories: Introductory chapters and Big Idea chapters. Introductory chapters provide the broad theoretical framework and an overview of constructivist practice and Reggio Emilia ideas. The Big Idea chapters present one of the seven Big Ideas: light/balance, cause and effect, transformation, sound, zooming in and out, and upside down, as springboards to help teachers build an interdisciplinary child centered curriculum Big Idea chapters also bring theory into practice by incorporating scenarios of real teachers implementing the projects discussed in their classrooms By balancing theory and the realities of the classroom this book helps teachers challenge themselves and their students with strategies for infusing new curriculum approaches in their classrooms without sacrificing what they need to accomplish in the process The Best Children's Literature Ellen Trachtenberg,2003 With more than 1 000 titles represented this book comes complete with developmentally appropriate recommendations and an extensive subject index that enable children parents caregivers or educators to help find the books that are appropriate for the level of skill and the interest of the individual Science Experiences for the Early Childhood Years Jean Durgin Harlan,Mary S. Rivkin,2008 Core text for Science in Early Childhood and Science in the Elementary School courses The ninth edition of Science Experiences for the Early Childhood Years is written during recurrent national anxiety about science education Since the 1957 launch of Sputnik concern has pervaded the overlapping circles of education business labor and government The United States is afraid of losing its high standard of living to countries that have more citizens or are more desperately hard working or whose children both score higher on international math and science tests and pursue science technology engineering and mathematics careers with more frequency The aim of this book is to help new teachers be both informed in science and strong in their belief that science is great for children a master discipline that naturally facilitates attention to math and reading Creating Meaning Through Literature and the Arts Claudia E.
