Modern Jihad:

The Apocalypse and the End of History Suzanne Schneider, 2021-09-07 In this authoritative accessible study historian Suzanne Schneider examines the politics and ideology of the Islamic State better known as ISIS Schneider argues that today's jihad is not the residue from a less enlightened time nor does it have much in common with its classical or medieval form but it does bear a striking resemblance to the reactionary political formations and acts of spectacular violence that are upending life in Western democracies From authoritarian populism to mass shootings xenophobic nationalism and the allure of conspiratorial thinking Schneider argues that modern jihad is not the antithesis of neoliberalism but rather a dark reflection of its inner logic The Apocalypse and the End of History is written with the sensibility of a political theorist and based on extensive research into a wide range of sources from Islamic jurisprudence to popular recruitment videos contemporary apocalyptic literature and the Islamic State's Arabic language publications The book explores modern jihad as an image of a potential dark future already heralded by neoliberal modes of life Surveying ideas of the state violence identity and political community Schneider argues that modern jihad and neoliberalism are two versions of a politics of failure the inability to imagine a better life here on earth

Jihadism in

Scandinavia Marco Nilsson,2022-10-18 This book is based on unprecedented interviews with active and former jihadists even IS fighters It focuses on the changing nature of jihad as a social phenomenon and how jihad changes jihadists It argues that there are fascinating generational differences between jihadists ideas and behaviors Moreover it argues that jihad changes jihadists through socialization in jihadists groups Indeed radicalization continues in new forms after entering the conflict zone Recognizing that jihadism is a complex social phenomenon and a discourse on religiously legitimized violence with deep roots in the history of Islam and Muslim societies the book asks two simple questions Why have some Muslims residing in the West taken up arms to enter the global battlefields of jihad Have the motivations and experiences of different jihadists all been the same To create a more coherent analysis than the article format allows and to offer new insights the author summarizes and further develops several years of research into jihadism As gaining access to and conducting interviews especially with active jihadists often differs from standard interviews much of the data were collected in a gray zone between more formal interviewing and ethnographic research The empirical material which is based on interviews with active and former jihadists is unique Moreover the methodological reflections are unprecedented and the project offers new analytical insights into jihadism with a focus on how jihadism and jihadists change
