

We Must Not Demand Miracles

- We Can Pray Boldly & Expect God to Act.
- But Accept Miracles aren't Guaranteed.
- God Works According to His Will, Not Ours.
- We Must Trust God to Act in His Time.
- Our Faith Rests on Jesus, Not Signs.

Miracles On Demand:

Miracles on Demand Charles Tebbetts,1987

Gary Anderson, Sadie Mitchell Ph D, 2025-10-29 Miracles on Demand will excite the Christian believer who has a unique relationship with God. Those who need to need how simple it is to receive answers to prayer and miracles will not put this book down. The real life stories show that God is just as active in our lives as He was in the lives of biblical characters. If you hunger and thirst for a deeper relationship with God you will benefit from the stories and scripture references. Ask, Seek and Knock is the formula for receiving answers to prayers. If you have been trying to get answers to prayers wondering whether God hears you when you pray or trying to become good enough for Him to help you, your heart will be comforted. God does not judge us harshly as many have been taught. Religious manmade rules have confused many people. Salvation is not dependent upon how good you are. Jesus completely fulfilled the requirement for you to receive salvation and eternal life. His sacrifice paid for your physical, emotional and spiritual healing. God wants you to prosper and be in health. You will be engaged by the real life stories of other individuals who attained decisive victories as they relied on the power of God and his Word. The principles of their success are laid out simply and unreligiously to emphasize God's love and willingness to help his children regardless of the situation. Biblical characters are illuminated showing their humanity as well and will encourage you to view the Bible as a book that is understandable, enjoyable and applicable to your everyday life. You will be inspired to use it as a ready reference and self help tool to transform your life to one you have always wanted but dared not demand.
