Models Of Jesus:

Models of Jesus John F. O'Grady, 1982      Models of Jesus John Francis O'Grady (sac.), 1981      Models of Jesus Revisited John F. O'Grady, 1994 With this revised version of his Models of Jesus O'Grady makes available a classic work that offers an extensive treatment of various models of Jesus that are not only possible but actual in the church today The author first surveys models of Jesus in the New Testament then examines six contemporary models of Jesus      Bible models (sermons). Richard Newton, 1887      Models of the Kingdom Howard A. Snyder, 2001-07-23 Christians often misunderstand one another when they refer to the kingdom of God They may ask Is it here on earth In our hearts In our churches Over the years best selling author Howard Snyder has been helping pastors and church leaders understand kingdom terminology Now he explains in eight models how the kingdom or reign of God has been and may be conceived Snyder explains with biblical texts and illustrations from church history If you are a pastor or church leader you will find guidance for building new kingdom communities in your congregation as well as ways to relate kingdom theology to global crises with the environment and our economy      Leaders between Role Model and Idol Volker Kessler, Angelika Marsch, Hans-Georg Wüch, The guiding question for this book is Should leaders become role models or idols or both or neither The theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer had a clear opinion on this If the leader tries to become the idol the led are looking for something the led always hope from their leader then the image of the leader shifts to one of a misleader Radio message 1 Feb 1933 This book presents interesting case studies from Africa America Europe spanning various disciplines and time periods It does not provide quick fix approaches but invites reflective practitioners and scholars alike to dig deeper It grew out of an inspiring leadership conference held in Budapest September 2024      Mapping Atonement William G. Witt, Joel Scandrett, 2022-10-04 This introduction traces the origins development and divergent streams of atonement theology throughout the Christian tradition and proposes key criteria by which we can assess their value The authors introduce essential biblical terms texts and concepts of atonement identify significant historical figures texts and topics and show how various atonement paradigms are expressed in their respective church traditions The book also surveys current hot topics in evangelical atonement theology and evaluates strengths and weaknesses of competing understandings of atonement      Cracking the Twin Global Reset Code Philip R. Herron, 2024-08-30 CRACKING THE TWIN GLOBAL RESET CODE This book reveals how the process of Cracking the Twin Global Reset Code Led to discovering several other SECRET CODES Those codes reveal Hidden aspects of The end times These codes were THE PANDEMIC CODE THE ANGEL OF DEATH CODE THE GREAT FAMILY REUNION CODE WILL THESE CODES TIE COMING END TIMES TO OUR GENERATION      Scripture and Ethics Jeffrey S. Siker, 1997 Siker brings together the history of biblical interpretation and the study of uses of the Bible in Christian ethics to examine how the Bible has actually been used in Christian theological ethics and in the process profiling eight influential twentieth century theologians      The Innovative Church Scott Cormode, 2020-09-15 The church as we know it is calibrated

for a world that no longer exists It needs to recalibrate in order to address the questions that animate today's congregants Leading congregational researcher Scott Cormode explores the role of Christian practices in recalibrating the church for the twenty first century offering church leaders innovative ways to express the never changing gospel to their ever changing congregations The book has been road tested with over one hundred churches through the Fuller Youth Institute and includes five questions that guide Christian leaders who wish to innovate The Christian's model Franz Hunolt,1895

The Ideal New Woman After Real Old Models Ernestine de Trémaudan,1899 Handwork for Junior Societies Robert Phillips Anderson,1921 Jesus: the Model Missionary Reuben J. Sequeira,2015-04-23 Jesus provided our model for all ministry Jesus either taught by example or taught through the Word He alone has given the acceptable standard for ministry without exception He was cross cultural in His ministry He ministered to individuals and groups He identified and ministered to all regardless of status or creed the rich the poor the religious the rejected men women and children He ministered to all ethnic groups of the day to the Galileans and hated Samaritans and Romans He modeled His life on earth with the last act of grace before His death on the cross with His word of forgiveness to the thief on the cross The reading of this book should inspire you confirm in your hearts your present ministry and bring about lasting challenges and changes where needed to experience the power of the Holy Spirit Blessed Are the Peacemakers Helen Paynter,2023-11-07 This volume in Biblical Theology for Life series dives deeply into the topic of human violence Before exploring what the Bible says about violence Old Testament scholar Helen Paynter sets out the contours for the study ahead by addressing the various definitions of violence and the theories of its origins prevalence and purpose What is violence Is there such a thing as natural violence Is violence a human or social construct or can we describe natural phenomena as violent How does the concept of violence relate to the concept of evil Violence is everywhere is it escapable How do we resist violence Having queued up the questions Paynter takes us to the Bible for answers Starting with the creation narratives in Genesis considered in comparison with the ancient Near Eastern myths and moving to the conquest of Canaan the most problematic of biblical narratives she investigates how these deep myths speak to the origins of human violence and its consequences The prevalence of violence through biblical history is inescapable Scripture reveals the hydra like nature of human violence investigating types of violence including but not limited to structural violence verbal violence sexual violence violence as public political act racialised violence including othering Through the voices of the prophets and then in the teaching of Jesus the Bible reveals that the seeds of violence exist within every human heart Even though we see evidence of resistance movements in the Bible such as the responses to attempted genocide in Exodus and Esther it is only on the cross that an absorption of violence by God takes place a defeat of violence by self sacrifice Along the way Paynter considers other relevant biblical themes including the apocalypse crushing the serpent's head and the concept of divine vengeance culminating in the resurrected Christ's lack of vengeance against those who did him to death In light of the New Testament we will consider how the first

Christians responded to the structural violence of slavery and patriarchy and how they began to apply Jesus redemptive non vengeful theology to their own day The book concludes by discussing of what this means for Christians today For many of us who live without routine encounters with or threats of violence we must consider our responsibility in a world where our experience is the exception With attention to the multi headed hydra that is violence and the concealed structures of violence in our own Western society Paynter challenges readers to consider their own perhaps inherited privilege and complicity The question of how we regard others both as individuals and as societies is a deeply relevant and urgent one for the church The church can and should be a wholly non othering body So what implications does this have for the church and for example Black Lives Matter or the rampant xenophobia in our society or immigration and global migration issues How do we resist evil What does it mean to turn the other cheek when the cheek that has been slapped is not our own How do we resist the monster without becoming the monster

The Meaning of "Make Disciples" in the Broader Context of the Gospel of Matthew Lindsay D. Arthur, 2022-05-09 Students of the Bible are generally comfortable with their understanding of the command make disciples Matt 28 19 Indeed most of them would argue that the Gospel writer Matthew spells out very clearly the meaning of the term in the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 by utilizing three key words viz go ing baptizing and teaching This point of view is the result of centuries of scholarly opinion that has looked primarily if not solely to these three adjacent participles of make disciples Matt 28 19 and not to the entire Gospel of Matthew for the meaning of the command This book does not suggest that going baptizing and teaching are not to be considered in determining the essence of Christian disciple making Rather it contends that the three terms should not be our only source of meaning This problem is tackled herein by demonstrating that Matthew establishes a framework within the Great Commission itself that points to a fuller meaning of make disciples in the broader context of his Gospel and that the Gospel writer expects his reader to draw on his entire Gospel to grasp the full meaning of this important command

Contemporary Catholic Theology Michael A.
