Options For A New Canada:

Seeking a New Canadian Partnership F. Leslie Seidle, Institute for Research on Public Policy, 1994 This document presents asymmetrical and confederal options regarding a new partnership. Topics covered are brinkmanship and renewal of Canadian federalism toward a multinational federalism flexibility within the present constitutional framework and the challenge of diversity

Canada: The State of the Federation 1991 Douglas M. Brown, 1991 Option Canada Andrew

Albert Brabant, 1968 Beyond the Impasse Institute for Research on Public Policy, 1998 Efforts to reform the Canadian constitution have only resulted in a serious impasse fostered by demands for change from Quebec and reticence from English Canada. This book looks at the potential for achieving reconciliation through a new partnership between Quebec and Canada in a series of papers that examine the stakes for both Canada and Quebec in opting for a modified relationship that is neither the status quo nor complete separation. Two papers in part 1 lay the conceptual groundwork concerning the constituent elements of partnership. Papers in part 2 deal with the economic union in the context of a renewed partnership. Four papers in part 3 examine issues concerning rights recognition and citizenship in a Quebec Canada partnership. Part 5 broadens the discussion to the international arena and includes a comparative international scan of partnership models. The final part distils the two editors separate conclusions on how to move beyond the impasse based on the studies presented
