Miss Ravenel's Conversion from Secession to Loyalty John William De Forest, 2021-02-04 Lillie Ravenel is a teenage girl from Louisiana brought to the north by her loyalist father at the outbreak of the American Civil War She is pursued by two contrasting suitors Captain Edward Colburne is a virtuous New Englander whose bland goodness makes him seem a perfect match for the uninspiring Miss Ravenel Her second suitor Colonel John Carter is a native Virginian but loyal to the Union Opposite to Colburne likes to drink and gamble but he is a man of honor and an admirable military officer Friendship with these men of the North brings the change in her belief eventually converting her to the cause of the Union She returns to New Orleans only to find herself shunned by her old circle of friends for having too many associations with the enemy Civil War battles that Lillie's suitors go through are described as a bloody and inglorious hell

Miss Ravenel's Conversion from Secessions to Loyalty John W. De Forest, 2000-03-01 More panoramic in scope and more realistic in its details than Crane's Red Badge of Courage this is one of the first and best novels ever written about the American Civil War Drawing on his own combat experience with the Union forces John W De Forest crafted a war novel like nothing before it in the annals of American literature His first hand knowledge of the wilderness of death made its way on to the pages of his riveting novel with devastating effect Whether depicting the tedium before combat the unspoken horror of battle or the grisly butchery of the field hospital De Forest broke new ground anticipating the realistic war writings of Ernest Hemingway Norman Mailer and Tim O'Brien A commercial failure in its own day De Forest's story was praised by Henry James and William Dean Howells who comparing it favorably to War and Peace acclaimed the book one of the best American novels ever written For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Miss Ravenel's Conversion from Secession to Loyalty John W. De Forest, 1974-01-01 Miss Ravenel's Conversion from Secession to Loyalty J. W. De Forest, 2017-08-07 Miss Ravenel's Conversion from Secession to Loyalty 1867 is an American Civil War novel by veteran John William DeForest John William De Forest May 31 1826 July 17 1906 was an American soldier and writer of realistic fiction best known for his Civil War novel Miss Ravenel's Conversion from Secession to Loyalty Early life and career De Forest was born in Seymour Connecticut then called Humphreysville the son of a prosperous cotton manufacturer He did not attend college but instead pursued independent studies mainly abroad where he was a student in Latin and became a fluent speaker of French Italian and Spanish While yet a youth he spent four years traveling in Europe and two years in the Levant residing chiefly in Syria In 1850 he again visited Europe making extensive tours through Great Britain France Italy Germany Greece and Asia Minor From that time he wrote short stories for periodicals having already authored several books

One of his earliest works The History of the Indians of Connecticut from the Earliest known Period to 1850 shows his interest in history. Written from 1847 to 1850, The History of the Indians of Connecticut is critical of the settlers' treatment of the Pequots and of King Philip's War, which is somewhat surprising given the early date of the scholarship. The non-fictional work also foreshadows De Forest's later fiction in its subject, realism, and occasional violence. The honorary degree of A.M. was conferred upon him by Amherst College in 1859. Civil War: With the advent of the American Civil War, De Forest returned to the United States. As a captain in the Union Army, he organized a company from New Haven, the 12th Connecticut Volunteers. He served constantly in the field until January 1865, taking an active part under Maj. Gen. Godfrey Weitzel's command in the southwestern states and under Philip Sheridan in the Shenandoah Valley. Graphic descriptions of battle scenes in Louisiana and of Sheridan's battles in the valley of the Shenandoah were published in Harper's Monthly during the war by Major De Forest, who was present on all the occasions thus mentioned and, though experiencing forty-six days under fire, received but one trifling wound. De Forest mustered out from the volunteer army in 1865 with the brevet rank of major.
