Mission Padre:

The California Padres and Their Missions Charles Francis Saunders, Joseph Smeaton Chase, 1915 History and description of the California missions      When the Mission Padre Came to the Rancho Gare Thompson, 2004 Padre Carlos Ramon is visiting the Delgado family in California where he shares stories of early California mission life with the Delgado children

The Old Mission Churches and Historic Houses of California Rexford Newcomb, 1925      Beasts of the Field Richard Steven Street, 2004 Written by one of America's preeminent labor historians this book is the definitive account of one of the most spectacular, captivating, complex and strangely neglected stories in Western history: the emergence of migratory farmworkers and the development of California agriculture. Street has systematically worked his way through a mountain of archival materials: more than 500 manuscript collections scattered in 22 states including Spain and Mexico to follow the farmworker story from its beginnings on Spanish missions into the second decade of the twentieth century. The result is a comprehensive tour de force. Scene by scene, the epic narrative clarifies and breathes new life into a controversial and instructive saga long surrounded by myth, conjecture and scholarly neglect. With its panoramic view spanning 144 years and moving from the US-Mexico border to Oregon, Beasts of the Field reveals diverse patterns of life and labor in the fields that varied among different crops, regions, time periods and racial and ethnic groups. Enormous in scope, packed with surprising twists and turns, and devastating in impact, this compelling revelatory work of American social history will inform generations to come of the history of California and the nation.

The Missions and Missionaries of California: Upper California Zephyrin Engelhardt, 1915 Comprehensive history of the Jesuit, Franciscan and Dominican missionaries in Lower California and of the Franciscans in Upper California      Old Mission Stories of California Charles Franklin Carter, 2019-12-13 In Old Mission Stories of California Charles Franklin Carter masterfully intertwines historical narrative with folklore, offering a rich tapestry of California's mission era. Through an accessible yet artful prose style, Carter brings to life the intricate legacies of the 21 California missions, weaving stories that reflect the diverse cultural encounters between Native Americans, Spanish settlers, and later American influences. This work stands as a significant contribution to the genre of regional history, accentuating both the spiritual and territorial struggles that shaped early Californian identity while employing vivid imagery and oral storytelling techniques typical of the period.

Charles Franklin Carter (1859-1945) was a prominent historian and educator whose passion for California's history was deeply rooted in his own experiences. Raised in the midst of the very landscapes he chronicles, Carter possessed both a reverence and critical perspective on the state's colonial past. His scholarly background in history, coupled with a lifelong dedication to documenting the local narratives and oral traditions, allowed him to create a work that is both informative and evocative, engaging readers in a profound examination of this pivotal historical moment. Old Mission Stories of California is a must-read for anyone seeking to explore the complex interrelations of California's early history. Whether you are a history enthusiast, educator, or simply curious about the cultural textures of the Golden State,

Carter's engaging storytelling and meticulous research promise to enlighten and inspire. This book not only preserves these essential narratives but invites readers to reflect on the broader themes of cultural exchange and historical legacy. The Missions and Missionaries of California: Upper California.
