

The background of the book cover is a detailed illustration of a large icebreaker ship, the USCGC Healy, navigating through a field of ice floes. The ship is shown from a side-on perspective, with its complex superstructure, including radar masts and satellite dishes, clearly visible. The ice floes are depicted in various sizes and shapes, creating a textured foreground. The sky is a deep, dark blue, suggesting a twilight or night setting. In the lower-left foreground, a polar bear stands on a small, isolated ice floe, looking towards the viewer. A red flag is planted in the ice next to the bear. The overall composition conveys a sense of exploration and scientific research in a harsh, cold environment.
