It's Such a Good Feeling Mister Rogers,2019 For several generations of children growing up in the late 20th century the warm cascade of celeste notes that introduced Mister Rogers Neighborhood was one of the most reassuring sounds in the world As the deliberate but gentle voiced Pennsylvanian completed his daily homecoming ritual and donned his signature cardigan to the jazzy strains of Won t You Be My Neighbor a sacred zone of safety and acceptance was established Whatever situation a child might be subject to in real life Fred Rogers clear message of friendship and inclusivity was a beacon that welcomed all into his Neighborhood Of its many great attributes music was at or very near the top of Rogers beloved television program A music composition major and pianist he used his songs as a tool to bring comfort and explain large concepts in a way that was simple and effective without talking down to his audience. He unconventionally employed a jazz trio helmed by fleet fingered keyboardist and musical director Johnny Costa to create a surprisingly sophisticated backdrop against which he unpacked difficult emotions like fear and loneliness using charming and straightforward melodies.
