Mistreb Of The House:

Mistress of the House, Mistress of Heaven Anne K. Capel, Glenn Markoe, 1996 The first of its kind exhibit cataloged here focuses on the women of Egypt from all levels of society in works compiled strictly from American collections by American curators Because the quantity of written records is limited though enormous in comparison to most early societies there is still much guesswork involved in determining the place women held in Egyptian society It is clear that unlike most ancient and not so ancient societies Egypt conferred on women the legal right to own property and to barter their own goods which means a larger record for current study The essays here are both erudite and fascinating to read the illustrations are clear and well presented in conjunction with the text 117 colour 112 b w illustrations Mistress of the House ROSEMARY. BAIRD, 2003-07 GREAT LADIES AND GRAND HOUSES OF BRITAIN Mistress of the House Rosemary Baird, 2004 In the 18th and 19th centuries to become Mistress of the House was the natural prospect of women born into Britain's wealthy aristocratic families An advantageous marriage would bring with it an important ancestral home a visible expression of power prestige and good taste Rosemary Baird introduces us to ten of these remarkable women detailing their accomplishments in the creation and running of Britain's great houses We also learn about their education and training the marriage market and their obligations as leaders of fashion interior design and society Based on diaries letters and family archives Mistress of the House is a fascinating work of social history Rosemary Baird was educated at Cambridge and Oxford a former consultant at Sotheby's she is now Curator of the Goodwood Collection Mistress of the House, Mistress of Heaven Ann Hicks, 1996 Mistress of the house Eleanor Farnes, 1946 The Mistress of the House Parthene Ballard Chamberlain, 1879 Mistress of the House Jaye Walker, 1997 The Mistress of the House. Arthur Pearson Ltd,1904      Mistress of the House Tim Dolin,2016-11-10 This exploration of gender and property ownership in eight important novels argues that property is a decisive undercurrent in narrative structures and modes as well as an important gender signature in society and culture Tim Dolin suggests that the formal development of nineteenth century domestic fiction can only be understood in the context of changes in the theory and laws of property indeed femininity and its representation cannot be considered separately from property relations and their reform He presents original readings of novels in which a woman owns acquires or loses property focusing on exchanges between patriarchal cultural authority the woman question and narrative form and on the place of domestic fiction in a culture in which property relations and gender relations are subject to radical review Each chapter revolves around a representative text but refers substantially to other material both other novels and contemporary social legal political and feminist commentary      History William Moir Bryce,1909
