Mo Mowlam

Lawrence Goldman

Mo Mowlam:

Mo Mowlam Julia Langdon, 2001-04-19 Mo Mowlam Secretary of State for Northern Ireland until 1999 is arguably Britain's most popular politician and a woman who evokes immense personal empathy among politicians and more importantly the public at large. She has given political journalist Julia Langdon privileged access to her family, friends and colleagues to enable her to write a definitive account of an absorbing life: the child of alcoholic parents who was the first in the family to go to university, studying in the USA; a politics lecturer who was also a woman with a mission to do something for her sexual liberation in the Seventies; her Labour politics in the North East Westminster and of course Ulster; and her dramatic success achieved against a brain tumour.

The Rosemary Nelson Inquiry Report Rosemary Nelson Inquiry, 2011

Rosemary Nelson, a solicitor in Lurgan, Northern Ireland, was murdered by a bomb exploding under her car near her home in March 1999. There were claims the police and government ignored a series of warnings about threats against her. Concerns about her safety had been raised over a two-year period before she was killed. She had become a hate figure for hardline loyalists and reportedly some police officers because of some of the Republican clients she represented. It was claimed she had been threatened by RUC officers as well as loyalist paramilitaries. The Cory Collusion Inquiry (2004, ISBN 9780102927443) investigated the allegations of collusion between British security forces and paramilitaries in her murder and concluded that there was enough evidence to warrant a full public inquiry. This Inquiry finds no evidence of any act by or within any of the state agencies Royal Ulster Constabulary, the Northern Ireland Office or the Security Service which directly facilitated the murder. Some members of the RUC did publicly abuse and assault her in 1997 and make abusive threatening remarks about her to her clients which became publicly known. Combined with intelligence leaks these had the effect of legitimising her as a target. There were omissions by the RUC and NIO which rendered her more at risk and more vulnerable. These omissions meant the state failed to take reasonable and proportionate steps to safeguard the life of Rosemary Nelson. The Inquiry finds no evidence of obstruction into the murder investigation which was carried out with due diligence.

Empathy in Politics and Leadership

Claire Yorke, 2025-11-18 A timely account of empathy politics and leadership showing how greater understanding and connection can foster trust, community and innovation. Empathy has become a cliché of contemporary politics often espoused but rarely understood. Yet the capacity to understand other worldviews is neither easy nor comfortable. Seeing through others' eyes requires strength, courage, integrity and an ability to reason across the harshest political divides and in a time of heightened marginalization, disconnection and polarization, empathy in our leaders and across society is vitally important. Claire Yorke offers the first account of empathy in politics and leadership, drawing on examples from across the world. Including model leaders like Nelson Mandela and Jacinda Ardern as well as figures on the right such as Donald Trump who mobilize different forms of empathy. Yorke asks what distinguishes empathetic leaders from the rest and examines why empathy is essential for a more human centred politics Demonstrating empathy's radical potential and disputing its connotations of weakness this book shows how we can build a political ecosystem that fosters belonging and engagement and cultivate the necessary dialogue to find common ground Oxford Dictionary of National Biography
