

instruct and it means "TO PREACH". Teaching means more than announcing the truth: it involves clarifying and illustrating the plan of salvation. When a person responds to the plan of salvation by accepting Christ, teaching becomes evangelism. In describing the evangelism of Jesus, it refers to holding discourses with others in order to instruct. Jesus secured eternal results through teaching ...Matt. 9:35.⁷

The fourth word is the Greek word Mathateuo which means "TO DISCIPLE". The term is concerned with results and carries with it the idea of converting. The converted one is made a learner or student and therefore a disciple or follower. Jesus commissioned His disciples to make disciples of others - Matt. 28:19.

The last word is the Greek word Martureo which means "To bear witness: A witness gives evidence(s) or substantiation of the truth. A witness tells what he has seen, heard, or experienced. A Christian witness tells others what Christ has done for him - that is, what he has seen, heard and experienced (Acts 1:8; 2 Jn. 1:1-4).

The task of evangelism in view of the above-mentioned concepts is rightly stated by C.E. Autrey in the following way: "evangelism is to bear witness to the gospel with soul aflame and to teach and preach with the express purpose of making disciples of those who hear." Also John R. Mott defines evangelism in the context of result: "the declaration of the gospel of Christ, either privately or publicly by a messenger of God so that man might repent of their sins, turn to God and live abundantly."⁸

To have a full comprehension of the dynamics in administering the local church through mobilization of evangelism, the above stated considerations must be taken into account. Consideration of the meaning, scope and concept of the key words such as administering, mobilization and evangelism is inevitable.

The Necessity for Mobilization

One of the great dangers facing the church in evangelism is the lack of concern and active involvement in touching the lives of others who are without Christ. A revitalized zeal must be evidenced in churches' programmes so as to transform Christians into active soul winners.⁹

In real evangelism, every possible method and every effort must be applied inside and outside the church door to bring people to Faith in Christ and membership in His church. Each new generation of Christians must communicate the gospel to its peers. Methods and techniques used to do this must take into account biblical mandates and contemporary society with its values. Francis Schaeffer, in his book, Escape From Reason, underscores that "those who would share Christ must understand those to whom they minister and relate to them appropriately".¹⁰ It is essential that warm emotional feelings should accompany evangelism. No matter what culture or method is used the warm evidence of Love MUST radiate from the soul winner.

Many reasons could be given to justify why mobilization is necessary in any form of administration, especially, administering the local church. Four key reasons are given for our consideration.
