The New York School Dore Ashton, 1992-10 With the emergence of Abstract Expressionism after World War II the attention of the international art world turned from Paris to New York Dore Ashton captures the vitality of the cultural milieu in which the New York School artists worked and argued and critiqued each other's work from the 1930s to the 1950s Working from unsifted archives from contemporary newspapers and books and from extensive conversations with the men and women who participated in the rise of the New York School Ashton provides a rich cultural and intellectual history of this period In examining the complex sources of this important movement from the WPA program of the 1930s and the influx of European ideas to the recognition in the 1950s of American painting on an international scale she conveys the concerns of an extraordinary group of artists including Willem de Kooning Jackson Pollock Ad Reinhardt Philip Guston Barnett Newman Arshile Gorky and many others Rare documentary photographs illustrate Ashton's classic appraisal of the New York School scene The New York School Dore Ashton, 1973 Robert Motherwell, Abstraction, and Philosophy Robert Hobbs, 2020-06-07 Employing an interdisciplinary approach this book breaks new ground by considering how Robert Motherwell's abstract expressionist art is indebted to Alfred North Whitehead's highly original process metaphysics Motherwell first encountered Whitehead and his work as a philosophy graduate student at Harvard University and he continued to espouse Whitehead's processist theories as germane to his art throughout his life This book examines how Whitehead's process philosophy inspired by quantum theory and focusing on the ongoing ingenuity of dynamic forces of energy rather than traditional views of inert substances set the stage for Motherwell's future art This book will be of interest to scholars in twentieth century modern art philosophy of art and aesthetics and art history Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of poets associated with the New York Schools of the early twentieth century The Oxford Handbook of American Jewish History Shari Rabin, Michael R.
