New Younger Irish Poets:

The New Younger Irish Poets Gerald Dawe, 1991    The younger Irish poets Gerald Dawe,    Calling Cards Peter Fallon, Aifric Mac Aodha, 2018    The Selling and Self-Regulation of Contemporary Poetry J.T. Welsch, 2020-03-31 The Selling and Self Regulation of Contemporary Poetry is the first book length study of the contemporary poetry industry By documenting radical changes over the past decade in the way poems are published sold and consumed it connects the seemingly small world of poetry with the other wider creative industries In reassessing an art form that has been traditionally seen as free from or even resistant to material concerns the book confronts the real pressures and real opportunities faced by poets and publishers in the wake of economic and cultural shifts since 2008 The changing role of anthologies prizes and publishers are considered alongside new technologies new arts policy and re conceptions of poetic labour Ultimately it argues that poetry s continued growth and diversification also leaves individuals with more responsibility than ever for sustaining its communities    The New Poetry Mary Prescott Parsons, 1922    New and Selected Poems Pat Boran, 2005 New and Selected Poems by Pat Boran is a generous selection of poems spanning 15 years from one of Ireland s best known younger poets A writer of great tenderness and lyricism according to Agenda magazine Boran makes poems which often examine the changing nature of contemporary Ireland but which are shot through with a hunted almost visionary light Poetry Ireland Review    Derek Mahon: A Retrospective Nicholas Grene, Tom Walker, 2024-09-17 Derek Mahon 1941 2020 is widely recognized as one of the most important Irish poets of his generation This collection of new critical essays offers an important retrospective assessment of the nature of his poetic achievement Bringing together many leading scholars of modern and contemporary Irish poetry including a notable number of accomplished poet critics its contributors range widely across Mahon s body of work Their essays offer fresh considerations of the biographical geographical and literary contexts that shaped his poetic voice This includes paying attention not only to more familiar influences but also to previously little considered interlocutors The stylistic and formal achievement of his voice is re evaluated in ways that range from attentive close readings to considerations of his controversial practice of self revision and his engagements with music and experiments in translation The politics of a poet often misleadingly considered apolitical are also reframed to take in the engagements of his early work through to the ecocritical commitment of his later poetry Indeed a notable aspect of this book is the consideration it gives to all the phases of Mahon s career As a whole the collection opens up many new ways of reading and understanding Mahon s important body of work    Modern English Writers Sir Harold Herbert Williams, 1918    Balancing Acts Frank Ferguson, 2023-02-15 Balancing Acts gathers together interviews and conversations between Gerald Dawe and a wide cast of interlocutors between 1995 and 2020 Drawn from exchanges on television and radio print and online media these conversations with fellow poets critics journalists colleagues and friends are a testament to Dawe s generous open hearted and open minded approachability as a poet for whom the artful way of making

poetry has always been informed by an attitude of just getting on with it In the same way that memory for him is not just about the past but involves a route into the present these fascinating interviews and conversations provide an insight into the poet on the go in the process of making unforgettable poetry happen    International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets    In Another World Gerald Dawe,2017-11-15 In Another World is a unique trip through Belfast mapped into the mystic through the timeless music of Van the Man Morrison The aptly soulful and inventive prose stems from the electric wit of acclaimed poet and fellow Belfast man Gerald Dawe Struck by the extraordinary brand of rhythm and blues that was Morrison s brainchild Dawe s book is a celebration of the inspirations that underlie Morrison s music Silhouetted in the work is Belfast moody and vibrant and the formative influence of the pre Troubles northern capital on Morrison s musical direction Dawe s writing transmutes the tender and unforgettable strains of Morrison s work from the release in 1968 of Astral Weeks to the publication in 2014 of Lit Up Inside Selected Lyrics A powerful tribute to mark Van Morrison s accomplishments In Another World taps into his legacy s eclectic soul and is kin to its enchantments    Our Poets of Today Howard Willard Cook,1918    Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock,2002-02 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world s most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale strives to replicate print content some content may not be available due to rights restrictions Call your Sales Rep for details
