The Two Worlds ,1929      Martin Eden and the Education of Henry Adams James Burrill Angell,2006-04-24 This volume argues that Jack London's Martin Eden and Henry Adams' The Education of Henry Adams are two of the first works in American literature to embody the motif of existentialism. The development of the existential dilemma in each work will be supported through references to earlier European existentialist writers with Nietzsche as a focal point. The 19th century fin de siècle was a time of tremendous change both materially and philosophically. The dawn of the last century was a time of great wealth and imperialistic expansion for Western civilization but also a time in which the seeds were sown for later military conflict the enormity of which the world had never witnessed before. From the vantage point of the post World War years the materialism of the fin de siècle was a decorative facade that concealed from view the underlying reality of the human abyss. The outbreak of the First World War changed all of that and the two works examined here anticipated that change. Henry James described the underlying reality of the fin de siècle when he remarked "To have to take it all now for what the treacherous years were all the while making for and meaning is too tragic for any words." Henry Adams and Jack London mirror this sentiment in their respective works by depicting the philosophical turbulence of the 19th century fin de siècle.

Virginia Quarterly Review ,1942 ,1938      The Union Seminary Review ,1920      The Reformed Church Review ,1919      Shipwreck Anthony J. Morelli II,2008-06-23 Conspiracy theorist Chet Morelli has been navigating the river of lies in the United States for more than 30 years. Like many others he's discovered that the government is no friend of the people and indeed has plans to enslave its citizens in order to promote a new world order. The evidence is staggering. Poisons such as fluoride have been added to the water supply and mercury continues to be injected into innocent children in the form of vaccines. Meanwhile the country continues its metamorphosis into a military police state where the people no longer have any rights. This new USA plans to create a master race and depopulate the earth of 80 percent of its people. None of this looks good for the general public but it's not too late to do something about it. Ask yourself: Where will this blueprint take humanity and has the Earth become the cosmic battleground on which God and Satan will fight for supremacy? And if so is this fight near an end?
