John Morgan,David Lambert

New Worlds New Geographies:

New Worlds, New Geographies John R. Short,1998 From the restructuring of a new world order to the reappraisal of the role of academics this accessible collection of essays calls for a progressive human geography to help cope with the political changes of a postmodern age New Worlds New Geographies represents a reluctant postmodernist and resident alien s attempt to make sense of a changing world

Geography John Morgan,David Lambert,2005-06-21 When Geography specialists decide they want to teach it can be a daunting prospect to enter a real classroom no matter how much subject knowledge they already possess Geography Teaching School Subjects 11 19 puts the subject into perspective and shows new teachers and student teachers how to make Geography accessible and interesting for their pupils Divided into three sections the book examines the theory and practice of teaching geography section one explores how teachers can frame their own knowledge for classroom practice section two focuses on Geography in the classroom and curriculum development as well as aspects of pedagogy and lesson design evaluation and assessment section three focuses on the teachers themselves and how they can view and work on professional development within their own subject area

Race, Racism and the Geography Curriculum John Morgan,David Lambert,2023-03-23 Changes in the nature of knowledge production plus rapid social and cultural change have meant that the curriculum question what is to be taught and by extension whose knowledge has been hotly contested The question of what to teach has become more and more controversial This book asks what is an appropriate curriculum response to the acute renewed interest in issues of race and racism How does a school subject like geography respond The struggle over the school curriculum has frequently been portrayed as being between educational traditionalists and progressives This book suggests a way out of this impasse Drawing upon and extending insights from social realism it explores what a Future 3 geography curriculum might look like one that recognizes the importance of the academic discipline as a source of curriculum making but at the same time avoids geographical knowledge becoming set in stone The book focuses very sharply on issues of race and racism enabling teachers to engage in curriculum making in geography that is racially literate The Foreword is written by Julian Agyeman a former geography teacher in the UK and now Professor of Urban and Environmental Policy and Planning at Tufts University USA

Learning Progressions in Geography Education Osvaldo Muñiz Solari,Michael Solem,Richard Boehm,2016-07-30 This book informs an international audience of teachers scholars and policymakers about the development of learning progressions for primary and secondary geography education in various countries and regions of the world The book represents an important contribution to learning progressions research and practice The different chapters explore how curriculum standards and frameworks in different countries portray progress and sophistication in the learning of geography The book compares educational systems and how teachers and curriculum developers use the concept of learning progression to guide educational practices As an approach to educational research learning progressions offer considerable potential for understanding how children develop understanding of geographic concepts and practices across grade bands and in relation to national geography standards The book analyzes the general conditions of learning progressions within the context of a globalized world Important themes are addressed such as knowledge acquisition in formal education measuring learning progressions in informal settings learning progressions for one curriculum standard or several standards conditions to assess progression in the learning of facts concepts and skills and multiple pathways for understanding or learning geography The contributing authors are experienced scientists in the field from all around the world giving specific insights into the practices of their countries The book appeals to K 12 teachers school administrators policymakers researchers in geography education professors and lecturers at universities around the world Geography of the New World John R. Borchert,Jane McGuigan,1961 Cultural Turns/Geographical Turns Simon Naylor,James Ryan,Ian Cook,David Crouch,2018-10-08 Introduces undergraduates to the key debates regarding space and culture and the key theoretical arguments which guide cultural geographical work This book addresses the impact significance and characteristics of the cultural turn in contemporary geography It focuses on the development of the cultural geography subdiscipline and on what has made it a peculiar and unique realm of study It demonstrates the importance of culture in the development of debates in other subdisciplines within geography and beyond In line with these previous themes the significance of space in the production of cultural values and expressions is also developed Along with its timely examination of the health of the cultural geographical subdiscipline this book is to be valued for its analysis of the impact of cultural theory on studies elsewhere in geography and of ideas of space and spatiality elsewhere in the social sciences American Empire Neil Smith,2004-10-29 Annotation American Empire challenges our deepest assumptions about the rise of American globalism in the twentieth century and puts geography back into the History of what is called the American Century Economic Geography Ray Hughes Whitbeck,Vernor Clifford Finch,1924
